Title 1 Disclaimer — Erica Serbin

Richland Northeast is a Title I school receiving support from the largest federal aid resource benefitting elementary and secondary education in the US. Schools receiving Title I aid are determined based on the socio-economic status of the student enrollment and are required to involve stakeholders, including staff, parents, and community members, when determining how funds are best used to meet the needs of the school. Title I schools are held accountable for and support student achievement, school improvement, staff development, and family engagement.
