Landell Weekly Communication

October 6-10, 2025

Principal's Message

I hope everyone is enjoying the fall mini break and taking some time to relax and recharge with family. As we return, October brings many exciting opportunities for our students and school community. From upcoming events and activities to special classroom projects, this month will be filled with fun and learning. We look forward to seeing everyone back on campus, ready to dive into all that October has to offer!

Information

Camp Landell Event – Clarifications & Reminders

- Order form due date has been extended to October 8th. Please turn it in soon. Food pre-order will help us get better counts for food orders. Limited food available for purchase on the day of the event. If your child forgets to bring the form with them to turn in, you can also drop it off at the front office.
- If you are not staying overnight you don't have to pay for a campsite.
- You are welcome to come and enjoy the event even if you don't want to order anything on the list.

- Every family attending the event must turn in a waiver form (it's on the last page of the flyer packet). If you decide to attend the event on the day of, you can turn in the waiver form at the check-in table.
- Families not camping overnight or unable to make it Friday night can still order breakfast and return on Saturday morning to enjoy breakfast with families and friends. Breakfast: 7:30am -9 am
- Even if not camping overnight, you may bring camping chairs, mats, blankets, flashlights, and lanterns to picnic and relax.
- Please be courteous and do not park in the loading zone area near the office. This area is reserved for campers to unload camping gear and for drop-offs.
- Non-campers will need to leave the campus by 9:30 pm. School gate will be closed around that time and remain closed for the night. If any overnight camper needs to leave in the middle of the night, our key holder person will be able to open the gate for you.
- No pets are allowed on campus.
- For safety, no scooters or bikes or wheeled shoes are allowed at the event.
- Please refer to the "Rules and Reminder" page included in the flyer for further details. (2nd page of the event flyer packet)
