

Name: _____

KCS Remote Learning Activities

Grade: Kindergarten

Remote Learning Day Instructions:

- Please choose one activity from each subject area: Reading, Writing, Math, Science, and Social Studies. You do not have to complete all the activities—just one from each area.
- All work is due within 5 school days of the remote learning day. Be sure to bring your completed activities with you when you return to school.
- Have fun learning at home!

Reading	Writing	Math	Science	Social Studies
Read a picture book with a family member and draw a picture of the main characters.	Practice writing your name five times.	Draw a set and write that number.	Sort items from outside into living/non-living and draw a picture.	Draw a picture of your family.
Read a picture book with a family member and draw a picture of the setting.	Draw a picture and write one sentence about it.	Practice writing numbers 1-10.	Draw a picture of the weather today and write a sentence.	Draw pictures of community helpers (e.g., firefighter, doctor).
Read a picture book with a family member and draw a picture of your favorite part.	Make a card for a classmate.	Count all the circles in your house and draw a picture.	Draw the four seasons and circle your favorite.	Create a simple map of your bedroom using paper and pencil.
Optional Encore Activities: Art: Choose two colors and go on a scavenger hunt around your home - which color did you find more of?. Music: Create a song or rhyme about the weather today. PE: Take a family walk.

Name: _____

KCS Remote Learning Activities

Grade: First Grade

Remote Learning Day Instructions:

- Please choose one activity from each subject area: Reading, Writing, Math, Science, and Social Studies. You do not have to complete all the activities—just one from each area.
- All work is due within 5 school days of the remote learning day. Be sure to bring your completed activities with you when you return to school.
- Have fun learning at home!

Reading	Writing	Math	Science	Social Studies
Read a book and retell the beginning, middle, and end.	Write a story about your day.	Count by 2s, 5s, and 10s out loud. Draw 5 things that come in 2's.	Observe and draw a picture of the day or night sky.	Create a timeline of your day using pictures or words.
Make a list of rhyming words from a story you read.	Write three sentences about your favorite animal.	Make a bar graph of shirt colors in your closet.	Observe the weather and draw what you see.	Draw and label a map of your neighborhood from memory.
Draw your favorite book character and describe them out loud.	Label parts of a drawing (tree, house, etc.).	Solve addition and subtraction problems with small objects (beans, toys). Write the equation and draw a picture to go with one problem.	Draw a picture of an animal and its habitat.	Ask a family member about their childhood and draw something they tell you.
Optional Encore Activities: Art: Choose two colors and go on a scavenger hunt around your home - which color did you find more of?. Music: Create a song or rhyme about the weather today. PE: Take a family walk.

Name: _____

KCS Remote Learning Activities

Grade: Second Grade

Remote Learning Day Instructions:

- Please choose one activity from each subject area: Reading, Writing, Math, Science, and Social Studies. You do not have to complete all the activities—just one from each area.
- All work is due within 5 school days of the remote learning day. Be sure to bring your completed activities with you when you return to school.
- Have fun learning at home!

Reading	Writing	Math	Science	Social Studies
Read a nonfiction book and write 3 facts.	Write a friendly letter to someone in your class.	Create flashcards for math facts using paper.	Draw the life cycle of a butterfly.	Draw a poster of a famous American using books or memory.
Compare two characters from a story using a simple chart.	Write a short story with a beginning, middle, and end.	Sort coins from a jar and add their value and draw a picture.	Record daily weather in pictures and simple words.	Talk to someone about their culture and draw something you learned.
Find and list new words you hear in a book that you read.	Write a how-to paragraph (e.g., how to brush your teeth).	Skip count using small objects (beans, blocks) and draw a picture.	Gather small items from around your house (like crayon, or toy). Fill a bowl with water. Guess which items will float and which will sink. Then test them and draw or write what you found out.	Make a family tree using names and drawings.
Optional Encore Activities: Art: Choose two colors and go on a scavenger hunt around your home - which color did you find more of?. Music: Create a song or rhyme about the weather today. PE: Take a family walk.

Name: _____

KCS Remote Learning Activities

Grade: Third Grade

Remote Learning Day Instructions:

- Please choose one activity from each subject area: Reading, Writing, Math, Science, and Social Studies. You do not have to complete all the activities—just one from each area.
- All work is due within 5 school days of the remote learning day. Be sure to bring your completed activities with you when you return to school.
- Have fun learning at home!

Reading	Writing	Math	Science	Social Studies
Read a chapter of your book and write or draw a summary of that chapter.	Write a personal story from your life.	Practice multiplication facts on paper or with flashcards.	Draw a picture or diagram to model bones and muscles in the human body.	Draw a map of your community from memory.
Create a comic strip of a story you read.	Choose a topic you know and write a paragraph.	Make a pictograph of snack choices or colors of shirts in your closet.	Draw a chart comparing solids, liquids, and gases..	Compare two types of communities (e.g., city and farm) using a chart.
Identify the main idea and 2 supporting details from a book.	Write a letter trying to convince someone of your opinion.	Estimate and then measure the perimeter of a room using footsteps. Record both.	Rub your hands together. Finish this statement: When I rub my hands together, I notice ___ because ___.	Interview an older family member about the past. Write about it.
Optional Encore Activities: Art: Create a picture using materials found in nature - be sure to title your creation! Music: Listen to one of your favorite songs and write a lyric that sticks out to you - what do you think the songwriter meant by this? PE: Pick a favorite exercise (jumping jacks, push ups, sprints, etc.) and do ten reps!

Name: _____

KCS Remote Learning Activities

Grade: Fourth Grade

Remote Learning Day Instructions:

- Please choose one activity from each subject area: Reading, Writing, Math, Science, and Social Studies. You do not have to complete all the activities—just one from each area.
- All work is due within 5 school days of the remote learning day. Be sure to bring your completed activities with you when you return to school.
- Have fun learning at home!

Reading	Writing	Math	Science	Social Studies
Summarize a chapter in five sentences from a book you are reading.	Write a fictional story set in the past.	Use a recipe and cut it in half to practice fractions. Write it down.	Find 2 things in your house that would attract a magnet and 2 things that would not attract the magnet.	Create a brochure for a U.S. state using paper and pencil.
Write a book review with pros and cons.	Create a short biography of a person you admire.	Use playing cards to create and solve multiplication problems. Draw a picture of 2 problems you solved.	Draw a model of a simple circuit to make a bulb light up. Be sure to include: power source, light bulb, wire for energy flow.	Draw and write about a U.S. landmark.
Identify the theme and give examples from a book you are reading.	Write a poem about nature you observe.	Create a multiplication word problem and solve it.	Set a dark colored object near a light source. Write 2 observations after several minutes.	Draw the North Carolina flag.
Optional Encore Activities: Art: Create a picture using materials found in nature - be sure to title your creation! Music: Listen to one of your favorite songs and write a lyric that sticks out to you - what do you think the songwriter meant by this? PE: Pick a favorite exercise (jumping jacks, push ups, sprints, etc.) and do ten reps!

Name: _____

KCS Remote Learning Activities
Grade: Fifth Grade

Remote Learning Day Instructions:

- Please choose one activity from each subject area: Reading, Writing, Math, Science, and Social Studies. You do not have to complete all the activities—just one from each area.
- All work is due within 5 school days of the remote learning day. Be sure to bring your completed activities with you when you return to school.
- Have fun learning at home!

Reading	Writing	Math	Science	Social Studies
Read a nonfiction article from a book or magazine and underline key points.	Write an opinion essay on something you care about.	Plan a party menu and budget using paper.	Make a chart comparing chemical and physical changes.	Write a newspaper article set in a past time.
Compare and contrast two books you've read.	Create a personal memoir about a memory.	Use grocery ads or receipts to practice decimal math. Write 3 math problems.	Write a paragraph about the weather today including what weather tools would be used to collect different data.	Talk with an older family member or think about stories you've heard from history. Make a list of 3 things that are different between life today and life in the past (e.g., communication, school, transportation). Draw or describe each.
Write a response to a chapter or article you read.	Research a science topic using books at home and write a report.	Use a recipe to practice doubling fractions. Write it out.	Place ice cubes in 2–3 different locations inside your home (like near a window, on the counter, or in the fridge). Check them every 10 minutes. Record which melted fastest and why you think that happened.	Choose a time in U.S. history you've learned about. Write a journal entry from the point of view of someone living during that time. (What would a day be like? What challenges would they face?)
Optional Encore Activities: Art: Create a picture using materials found in nature - be sure to title your creation! Music: Listen to one of your favorite songs and write a lyric that sticks out to you - what do you think the songwriter meant by this? PE: Pick a favorite exercise (jumping jacks, push ups, sprints, etc.) and do ten reps!

Name: _____

KCS Remote Learning Activities

Middle School

Remote Learning Day Instructions:

- Please choose one activity from each subject area: Reading, Writing, Math, Science, and Social Studies. You do not have to complete all the activities—just one from each area.
- All work is due within 5 school days of the remote learning day. Be sure to bring your completed activities with you when you return to school.
- Have fun learning at home!

Reading	Writing	Math	Science	Social Studies
Read a nonfiction article from a printed source and highlight important info	Write a short story with characters and dialogue.	Create a vacation plan and estimate the costs.	Watch the sky and draw clouds, sun, or weather changes.	Discuss a historical topic with a family member and take notes.
Compare themes between two books or stories you've read.	Create a play or skit script.	Survey your family about a topic and make a graph.	Mix baking soda and vinegar and write observations.	Create a report about a country and its culture.
Write a review or reflection on a book you read.	Pick something you believe strongly about — it can be a school rule, a household issue, or whether pineapple belongs on pizza — and write an argumentative essay about your topic.	Solve real-world problems like comparing prices or planning a meal. Write it down.	Draw the four seasons and circle your favorite.	Choose a major historical event or place we've studied. Write a one-page journal-style description that explains what was happening, who was involved, and why it was important.