

District Update

Livonia Public Schools

January 26, 2026

Learning & Growing...

Churchill math and NHS students put on a fun Gingerbread Geometry event!

Learning & Growing...

Roosevelt students love time in the library to pick new books!

Learning & Growing...

Emerson students in World Language Adventures enjoyed a taste of the world with food from Germany, Nigeria, Japan, France, and Spain.

Learning & Growing...

LCTC students have been touring and visiting a variety of groups and organizations throughout Detroit for some educational experiences. Business students visited Lift in Corktown to take part in an Unboxed Challenge and toured the Michigan Central Train Station! Engineering Design students visited the College for Creative Studies Product Design Studio and also toured the Parade Company!

MSBOA Solo and Ensemble

Franklin hosted the annual MSBOA District 12 Solo and Ensemble on Jan. 17! Students throughout our district and our region performed and received ratings. Congratulations to all of our students who performed, and to Franklin for hosting such a large event!

Livonia Matchup Fun!

The LJAL and The Regulators basketball players visited Franklin to watch a game between FHS and Stevenson! It was great to have future LPS basketball players support our teams!

Patriot Pride

Franklin Baseball and Football players and coaches got together during one of the many recent snowstorms to shovel snow in the neighborhood! Great work!

Churchill Wrestling Assistance

Churchill Wrestling had a busy weekend assisting the community between their time on the mat, by volunteering at the Gleaners Food Bank.

LPTSA Chili Cook-off

What a wonderful event, helping to keep our community members warm and cozy this past Saturday at the annual LPTSA Chili Cook-off! There were a dozen entries from different schools (shout out to Emerson with THREE entries!).

A special new award was shared this year in honor of a regular and creative entrant into the cook off each year, Mike Ulasek.

LPTSA Chili Cook-off

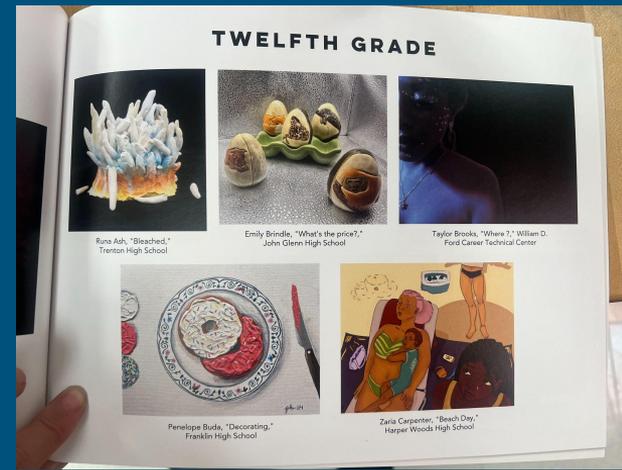

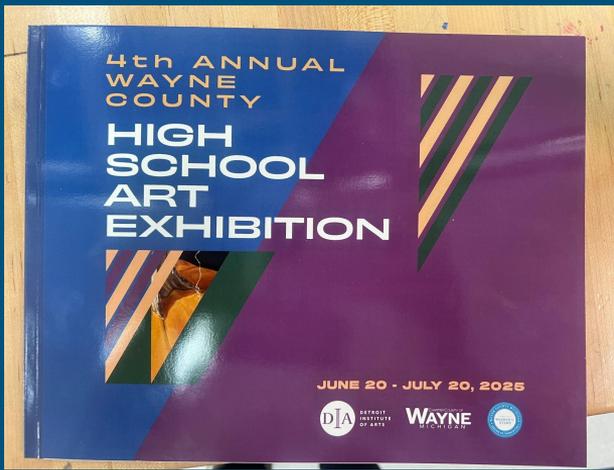

With Many Kudos!

kudos!

Student Art Exhibition!

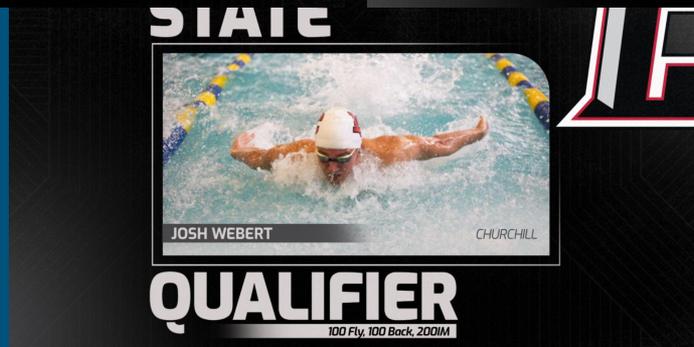

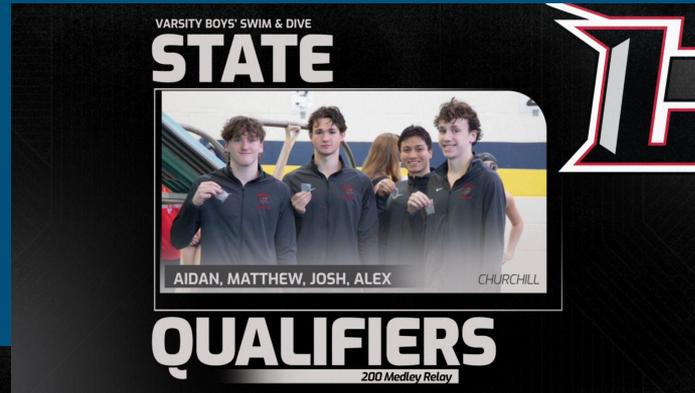

Congrats to FHS artists Penelope Buda & James Masters and Churchill's Elisabel Vega Argueta & Anam Dhaliwal, on being featured in the 4th Annual Wayne County High School Art Exhibition catalog! The students artworks were displayed at the DIA and the Guardian Building during June and July of 2025, and are now compiled and featured in the above catalog!

Stevenson Dance!

Congratulations to the Stevenson Varsity Dance Team for placing 1st in Hiphop and 2nd in Jazz at the final competition of the Pistons Classic Dance Championships!

Boys Swim and Dive Qualifiers!

Churchill swimmers are heading to States! Congrats to Austin, Aiden, Matthew, Josh, and Alex!

Boys Swim and Dive Qualifiers!

Churchill diver Austin Stewart recently broke the School Record and the Pool Record! Wow!

Bowling Champs!

Congratulations to the Churchill Girls
Bowling team for winning the
Wayne County Bowling Tournament Championships!

Pom Qualifiers!

Congratulations to the varsity Pompon squads at Churchill, Franklin and Stevenson for advancing to the State Finals on Feb. 15! Way to go!

Transportation Compassion!

Members of the Transportation Department collected new and gently used warm clothing items, winter coats, and boots for a charity called "More than a Bus." Led by LPS bus parapro Lynn Powers, who regularly volunteers for More than a Bus, the collection took place in December and resulted in 16 bags of warm clothes, 13 pairs of boots, and 53 coats!!
