

Parent Involvement Plan

Colerain Elementary School 2025-26

Colerain Elementary School recognizes that a child's education is a responsibility shared by the school and family. To support the goal of educating all students effectively, the school and family must work as knowledgeable partners. Although families are diverse in culture, language, and needs, they share the school's commitment to the educational success of their children. Parental/family involvement is the participation of parents/families in regular, two-way, meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including and ensuring:

- that parents/families play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;
- that parents/families are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
- that parents/families are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and advisory committees to assist in the education of their child.

Welcoming All Families

All parents/families are welcomed into the school and are treated with courtesy and respect by school employees.

- Parental input concerning school activities/policies is encouraged and valued.
- Communication with parents/families will be in a language and/or form, which can be understood by the parents/families.
- Parent/Teacher conferences will be held twice yearly to ensure academic progress is shared.
- Additional meetings will be arranged at various times to give parents/families greater opportunities for input and involvement.
- Parent meetings will be planned to address a variety of topics/concerns.

Communicating Effectively

Curriculum guidelines, standards and assessment practices are discussed at parent teacher conferences or upon parent inquiry or request.

- Required notifications will be distributed to all students, parents, and families. Notifications will be sent in the child's native language, if available.
- A student/parent handbook is provided which includes the Parent/School Compact.
- Parents/families attend parent teacher conferences to discuss their child's educational program.
- Parent/teacher meetings are arranged at varied times to accommodate the schedule of the parent.
- Parents/families are encouraged to contact the school about programs and services offered.
- Parents/families and school employees work cooperatively to improve educational opportunities.
- The school staff advertises school activities/events through various media outlets (flyers, school website, Facebook).
- School calendars and classroom newsletters are distributed on a regular basis.
- Progress notes are sent home at appropriate intervals to update parents on student achievement and behavior.
- Parents whose second language is English are provided accommodations as needed.

Supporting Student Success

Families assist in creating a parent network that fosters support for parents, students, faculty, and administration.

- Families attend parent gatherings, special events, and other activities offered by the school.
- Families respond to school surveys.
- Parents volunteer to work in the school.
- Families keep the school informed about contact information (new phone numbers, addresses) when changes occur.
- School personnel will be educated in the value and utility of the contributions of parents, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties with parents and the school.
- Parent/family involvement strategies will be coordinated and integrated through meetings and/or communiqués with key people from other programs, such as Head Start, Family Literacy and Pre K programs.
- The school system, in collaboration with parents/families, shall establish programs and practices that enhance parent/family involvement at all grade levels and reflect the specific needs of students and their families.

Speaking Up For Every Child

An annual parent/family survey will be conducted in order to evaluate parent/family involvement. The effectiveness of involvement activities, the degree of participation, and any barriers to family participation will be studied. The evaluation will include parents/families at all grade levels and in a variety of roles.

- Opportunities for parent/family participation in school activities, programs, and events will be provided equally.
- Surveys pertaining to school climate will be distributed, tallied, and analyzed to determine areas of needed improvement.
- Helpful parenting tips regarding how to monitor their child's academic progress, work with their child at home and partner with their child's teacher are included in newsletters and websites.

Sharing Power

- Parents actively participate in the development, implementation, and evaluation of the School Improvement Plan and parental involvement plan.
- School policies/procedures are available for parent review and input.
- Families work with the school staff and teachers to revise the perceptions of the school's climate.
- Families attend Open House and other parent engagement meetings at various times to offer suggestions for improvement and to create an educational environment that is beneficial to students.
- Varied opportunities for parental/family involvement/input in school decisions, policies, and practices will be made available.
- Parents/families of children served in Title I schools will be involved in decisions regarding the use of Title I funds reserved for parent/family involvement.

Collaborating with Community

To strengthen the bond between the community and school, parents/community members are encouraged to be school volunteers.

- Community members/parents serve as resource persons for classroom activities.
- Families/students are encouraged to participate in extended learning opportunities available through varied civic groups within the community.
