
GRANT UNION WRESTLING

Grant Union Prospectors Wrestling: Chaos. Pins. Victory. Repeat.

The recent wrestling tournament had over 500 students in attendance, with junior high wrestlers in the old gym and high school wrestlers in the new gym.

Translation: two gyms, zero chill. The noise level was somewhere between a jet engine and a middle school pep rally on energy drinks.

Sadly, Cooper couldn't wrestle because he broke his arm at the Classics—tragic, but also legendary behavior.

We honored our seniors: Taylor Parsons, Bryan Camacho, Aaliyah Judd, Rhyis Conn, Taylor Thomas, and Vincent Raschio—absolute icons.

Here are some highlights that are worth mentioning...

Taylor Parsons – Varsity 132

Bottom line: Grant Union wrestling is loud, tough, and absolutely unstoppable. If you weren't there, you missed controlled chaos, flying pins, and a whole lot of winning.
