EARNING ADDITIONAL LOTTERY WEIGHT

If the vocational programs have more applicants than there are seats available, a resident and a non-resident lottery will take place to determine who will be offered enrollment. Each applicant will have 1 entry in the appropriate lottery. The following evidence, if provided as part of this application, can earn an applicant additional weight (i.e. an additional entry) in the lottery.

- A student can earn 1 additional lottery weight because they had fewer than 27 unexcused absences over the 270 school days prior to the date of application.
- A student can earn 1 additional lottery weight because they have NOT been suspended or expelled pursuant to M.G.L. c.71 §37H or §37H1/2 for either of the following on school premises or at school-sponsored or school-related events over the 270 school days prior to the date of their application: possession of a dangerous weapon or assault of educational staff, provided that such suspensions or expulsions were in connection with felonies that have been adjudicated or in which the student has made an admission of guilt in court, provided that no data prior to an applicant's seventh grade year may be considered.
- A student can earn 1 additional lottery weight because they have demonstrated interest in the CTE program. This interest can be demonstrated by submitting one of the following:
 - A personal essay with this application or
 - A letter of recommendation from a non-family member (counselor may provide this recommendation) with this application or
 - An audio or video presentation with this application or to mlaurin@grsd.org before February 1.
