Vancouver College Hall of Honour – Selection Criteria

The Vancouver College Hall of Honour recognizes individuals whose lives and achievements reflect the ideals upon which Vancouver College was founded: faith, excellence, service, and community leadership. Honourees inspire our students and community by serving as role models, helping students connect with the past and become aware of their future potential.

Eligibility Requirements:

- The nominee must be an alumnus of Vancouver College or an individual who has made a significant contribution to the Vancouver College community.
- A minimum of five years must have passed since the nominee's graduation from Vancouver College or the conclusion of their service to the school.

General Selection Criteria: Nominees should demonstrate:

- Excellence in their field or vocation — including, but not limited to, Academics, Athletics, Business, Medicine, Politics, Religious Life, Social Justice, Scientific Achievement, and The Arts.
- Recognition for their achievements, either at the Provincial, National, or International level of competitive excellence and embodiment of the school's values.
- Embodiment of Vancouver College values and ideals upon which Vancouver College was founded in 1922.
