

FAQs

Wait... is Chez Claude even real?

Technically, no. Spiritually, absolutely. It's a love letter to glamour, invention, and a certain je ne sais quoi. Some say it never existed. Others say they were there when it all began. What's undeniable? The party (and the fundraising for the Lycée) is very much real. And you're on the guest list.

Where is the event taking place?

Chez Claude will be popping up at Bimbo's 365 Club in San Francisco on March 28, 2026.

What is included with my ticket?

A decadent dinner by Chef Daniel de La Falaise, open bar, live entertainment, and entry to the best fundraiser of the year. Plus: membership to the most exclusive club never to exist and the chance to become part of Chez Claude's lore.

Can I sit with my friends?

Of course! You can list your preferences under special accommodations when you purchase your tickets or email the advancement department. If you don't specify who you'd like to sit with, we will do our best to pair you with other parents from your child's class.

Where will the money go?

Proceeds from sponsorship, ticket sales, and the auction will go towards the school's general fund, while all money raised during the "Fund for the Future" portion of the evening will be used exclusively for the second phase of the Cantine Project.

What is the dress code?

One word: Glamour. Mid-century supper club elegance with a wink. Just wear something that makes you feel fabulous.

Who is Claude?

Some say Chez Claude was named after the club's elusive founder, a mysterious bon vivant known only as Claude. The answer is lost to time, but rest assured, if your name is Claude, you drink for free.

What if I still have questions?

Email galachairs@lelycee.org or ask your most enigmatic friend. They're probably already members.
