Discussion Item: SY 25-26 Council Initiatives

- A. Council members each shared what awards they were able to secure from local restaurants and businesses for students who have had perfect attendance. Students will receive a postcard in the mail sharing their accomplishment, and an invitation to bring the card to Hootie's Holiday Feast and 'spin the wheel' for a reward celebrating their attendance achievement.

Informational Item: Principals Update

- A. Mrs. Alhadeff highlighted PTO doing Hootie's Holiday HUT for the first time this year. PTO purchased items for students can 'shop' for their families for the holiday.
- B. Mrs. Alhadeff shared that IReady is happening now, and that students who meet their stretch goal will be rewarded with a lunch with their learning coach.
- C. Mrs. Alhadeff shared how Vickery Mill is honoring the new Dyslexia Law. This week, students in grades K-3 take their 2nd Amira Screening. The screening evaluates if students have any signs of dyslexia so it can be immediately addressed.

- D. Mrs. Alhadeff highlighted the Winter Wonderland store coming on the last day of school before the break, brought to students by Vice Principal Duckworth. Students who meet the attendance and behavior requirements can celebrate their accomplishments by using their Dojo points to purchase fun holiday experiences around the school.
- E. Lastly, Mrs. Alhadeff highlighted that although she cannot publicize the CCRI overall score yet, the score is the highest Vickery Mill has ever had! Mrs. Alhadeff commended the hard work of her staff, teachers and students.

Discussion Item: Draft Next Meeting Agenda

- A. The next Vickery Mill SGC meeting is January 22nd at 2:45pm at Vickery Mill Elementary. The council will review December minutes for approval, review Hootie's Holiday Feast, discuss council initiatives, hear the Principal's update, and anything else the county assigns once that information comes out. .
