

Junior High Great Books List

The Great Books are those works of literature that have stood the test of time. They invite us into the Great Conversation, asking deep questions about what it means to be a human.

Students will choose three to four (3-4) different books to read from the list per semester. Teachers may require certain books to be read. Upon completion of each book, parents will discuss with their child the book they have read using discussion questions provided by the teacher. Then, parents will sign a form verifying their child has read the book, and students will turn in the completed form.

Students should expect to have regular reading homework from the assigned curriculum and the Great Books list. Although it may vary on a daily basis, students should expect to read roughly 30 minutes per night.

Directions:

1. Choose a book to read from the Great Books List.
2. When finished, discuss the book with a parent or guardian using the study questions provided by your English teacher.
3. After discussing, sign and turn in to the teacher.
