

CORKY RANNEY COMMUNITY SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

About the Scholarship

Friends of Nantucket Public Schools was founded in the early 1980s by Charron “Corky” Ranney, a mother of five Nantucket public school students. After moving to the island, Corky quickly recognized the need for greater parent involvement and stronger community support for the local schools. Corky was a dedicated parents and involved community member, always striving to serve those around her.

The criteria for scholarship eligibility is: demonstration of outstanding commitment to community service.
