

Daniela serves as Assistant Principal, ELA Achievement Advisor, and Head of the ELD Department at Pensar Academy, where she is recognized as an “Educational Craftsperson” for integrating instructional expertise with strategic, systems-level design. With more than 18 years of experience across K-8 education, she has served as a classroom educator, instructional coach, curriculum writer, and professional development presenter, bringing a comprehensive leadership perspective. Daniela has played a key role in aligning Pensar Academy’s Project-Based Learning model with academic standards and translating it into teacher-ready practices.

In her eighth year as Assistant Principal, she leads instructional coaching, staff development, family engagement, community partnerships, and teacher recruitment. Selected for the MCESSA Aspiring Principal Training Program, Daniela exemplifies principled leadership grounded in equity, rigor, and impact.
