

Marshfield Tennis Camp

Marshfield Tennis Association (MTA)

Camp will be held Mon-Thurs, starting June 15th-July 24th.

Fridays will be rain dates throughout the 6 weeks.

Camp will be held at Boson Tennis Complex
(MHS Tennis Courts)

MTA's Marshfield Tennis Camp is offering boys and girls (ages 7-17) in our area a chance to experience and develop skills for the lifetime sport of tennis. The camp will combine skill development, fitness, and game strategies. Marshfield Tennis Coaches, Gillian Davis, Taylor Seehafer, Julie Ridgway & Ali Luedtke will be the camp directors along with High School tennis players as camp assistants.

What skill level is right for my child? (if your child needs to switch levels during the camp, it will be left up to the discretion of the Camp Director and Parent(s) – a pay increase will be charged if moving from Intermediate to Advanced)

- Beginner (7-10): a player new to the sport and/or is still developing consistent forehand/backhand strokes.
- Intermediate (11-13): a player that has completed a beginning tennis class, understands basic court etiquette, can get their serve over the net about half the time and has been exposed to scoring.
- Advanced (14-17): a player that has completed a beginning tennis class, been part of a tennis team, and/or plays tennis on a regular basis, they can serve, volley, demonstrate backhand and forehand returns, understand, and can demonstrate court etiquette and can keep score.
