As we recognize Counselor Appreciation Week, I want to take a moment to honor a group of professionals who make an extraordinary impact on our school community every single day. Our counselors are the steady advocates, guides, and champions who help our young learners grow not only academically, but socially and emotionally as well. We are truly grateful to have such an exceptional team supporting our students. Their dedication, compassion, and unwavering commitment create a safe and encouraging environment where every child can thrive. Whether they are helping students navigate challenges, plan for the future, or simply feel seen and supported, their work strengthens the heart of our school. Please join me in celebrating and thanking our counselors for the invaluable role they play. Their contributions make a difference that extends far beyond the classroom.
