

Rosamond Sherley Elementary School

2025-2026 School-Parent Compact

“At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child's success is the positive involvement of parents.” - by Jane D. Hull

“The child's first and most influential teacher is the parent.”

Teacher Responsibility:

- Be a positive role model that encourages student attendance through my enthusiasm for my students and content.
- Provide a supportive and effective learning environment that builds self-esteem and academic knowledge where students can be successful.
- Provide High Quality Curriculum that enables students to achieve state standards.
- Continuously communicate and work with families to support student learning.
- Conference with each student's parents at a minimum of one time during the school year.
- Send student progress reports home to parents and if needed provide support to parents interpreting the report.
- Provide opportunities for parents to volunteer within my classroom.

Student Responsibility:

- Attend school regularly and on time.
- Complete and return homework assignments.
- Come to school with the necessary supplies for learning.
- Do my best work.
- Conform to school rules.

Parent Responsibility:

- Ensure that my child attends school regularly and is on time.
- Provide enough time and an environment at home that allows my child to complete school work and/or study at home.
- Encourage my child to do his/her best work.
- Continuously communicate and work with the teacher to support my child's learning.
- Conference with my child's teacher at a minimum of one time during the school year.
- Be aware of my child's progress report and if needed request a conference with the teacher for help interpreting the report and/or intervention strategies.
- Volunteer at the school and/or in the classroom if time and/or schedule permits.
