

FILM & MEDIA LITERACY

WHAT IS THIS CLASS?

Like movies? If so, then Film & Media Lit. is the course for you. Students watch lots of movies, as they literally learn “how” to watch them - breaking down aspects of directing, cinematography, screenwriting, acting, and more. This also course delves into the history of movie making, along with its various genres and directors.

WHO CAN TAKE THIS CLASS?

Upperclassman (11th & 12th graders) only. Once the course begins, parent permission will be required.

KNOW THIS:

This course isn't just movie-watching time. The “Literacy” aspect is in full-force. Along with various creative projects, students practice how to think, analyze, and write about films.
