NAF ACADEMY OF FINANCE

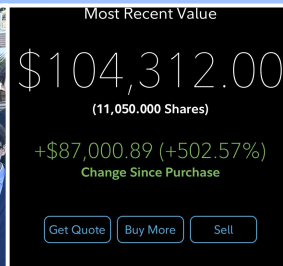

If you're interested in business, money, or how companies work, the Academy of Finance introduces you to the financial world in a fun, practical way. You'll take classes like Accounting, Marketing, Financial Planning, and Economics, which teach you real-life skills such as budgeting, managing money, and understanding how businesses make decisions. You'll also get opportunities to work on real projects, meet business professionals, and even take part in internships. These experiences show you what careers in banking, investing, and business look like—and help you prepare for your future.
