 This Friday is National 80s Day! National Eighties Day is celebrated annually on February 6th, encouraging people to relive the era's vibrant pop culture through fashion, music, movies, and nostalgia. While not a formal federal holiday, it's widely recognized as a fun day to embrace 80s trends and memories, with activities like listening to 80s hits, wearing bright colors, and watching classic films. We hope to see all of you wearing neon colors, big hair, leg warmers, or your favorite 80s music shirts like Duran Duran, Michael Jackson, or Madonna! The first period class with the most participation will get a special treat!

 If you participated in the CMS Spelling Bee Championship round last week, don't pack a lunch tomorrow, because your RG Burger will be here! Plan on picking your burger lunch at Library at lunchtime tomorrow—you earned it!

 Come out to the gym this afternoon to cheer on our Boys' Basketball Teams in their games against Monte Vista Middle School at 4:00 & 5:00pm today! Go Cougars!

 Bus Riders: You MUST have your Student ID with your bus pass sticker every day. Drivers will be checking them when you get on the bus in the morning and afternoon. If you lose your ID, please bring $5 to Ms. Eldrige in the office, so can issue a new one.

 Do you like BBQ? If so, bring your family down to the Crossroads Barbeque in the Crossroads Shopping Center tomorrow night for dinner! The Crossroads BBQ is sponsoring a Fundraiser for our Domestic Arts class, so a portion of your family's dinner will be donated to the Domestic Arts class when you mention the Promo Code "CMS PTO".

 In the 7th Grade Wiffleball Tournament of Donuts, the World Series kicked off yesterday with a best-of-three showdown between the Princess Loosley's Winning Willinghams and the Steely Sticky Monkey Flowers. The Willinghams jumped out early thanks to an infield home run by Cash Saunders and some shaky defense by the Monkey Flowers. Strong pitching and defense kept the Flowers scoreless through the first two innings. That changed quickly when JJ "Juice" Bohlman launched a moonshot grand slam, igniting a 10-run inning for the Stinky Monkey Flowers. From there, the momentum never shifted. The Monkey Flowers went on to win Game 1, 10-2. Game 2 takes place today, and it's a must-win contest for the Willinghams.

 What creature is part fish & part human? No, not a mermaid. It's Ponyo! Come watch it today at lunch in D7.
