ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Today is day two of National School Counseling Week. Have you ever taken a moment to be still and think about past experiences that lead you to where you are? Maybe attending a field trip to an art museum encouraged you to home in on your passion for drawing and painting. Perhaps reading about characters in your favorite book inspired you to research ancient civilizations. Maybe not getting enough rest the night before a big test led you to perform less than your best. If you ever want to chat about the lessons you have learned, feel free to stop by and talk to your counselor. Make good decisions today!
- It's your lucky day! The American Red Cross drink special at The Stomping Grounds has been extended through WACKO Week. Just ask for the Red Cross Special; enjoy a tasty drink and help support an important cause!
