

WILDWOOD ELEMENTARY

Board Update

The Launching Point

Three Areas of Focus for Tonight

3–5 Writing Program

Assessment and Data

SEL: Growing Together

Units of Study for Writing

New for the 2025–2026 School Year

Changes to philosophy

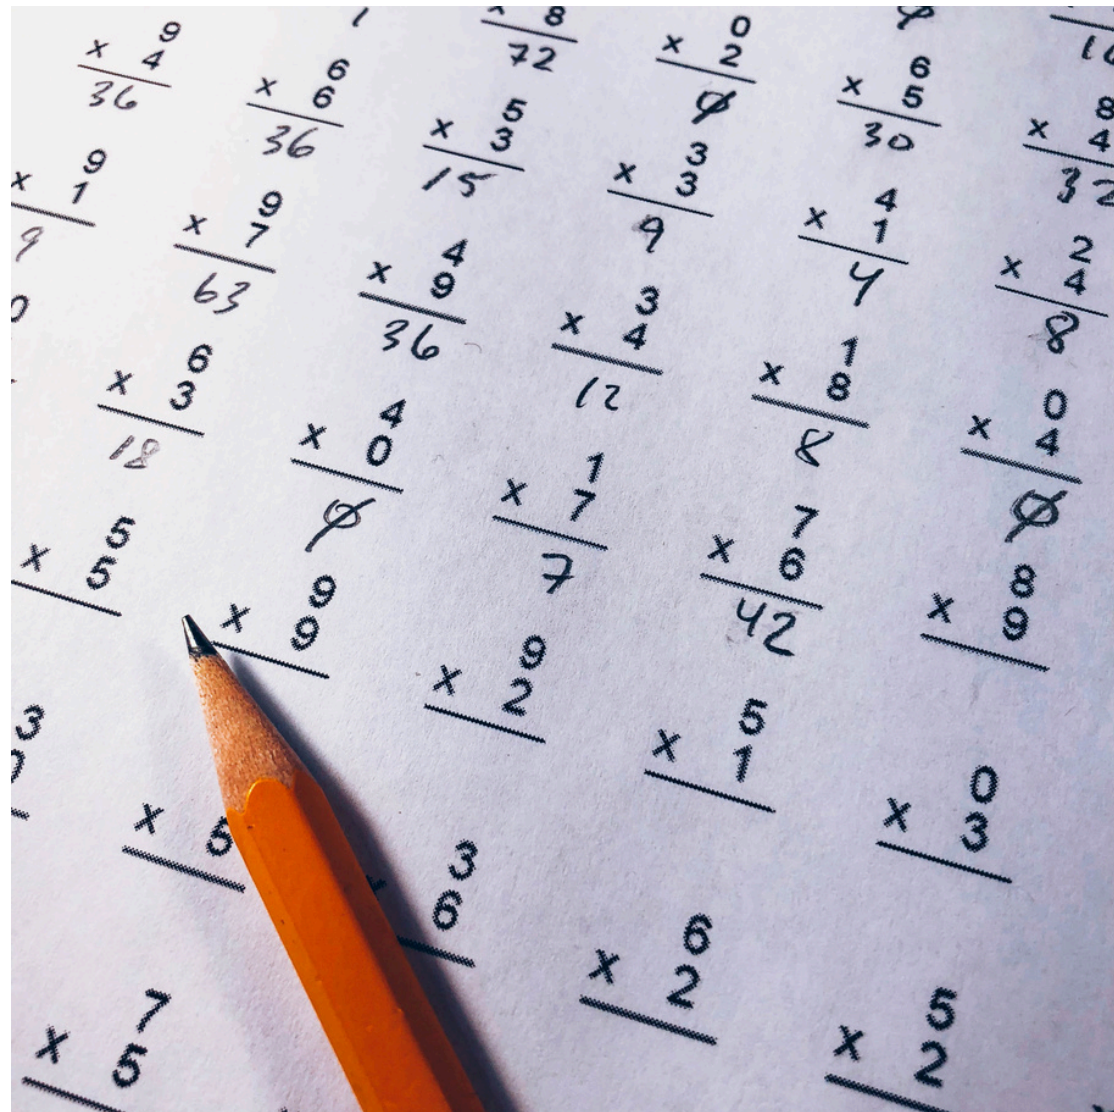

- The model requires a different structure within the classroom
- Teachers and students have spent time this year adapting

Changes to Expectations

- Our teachers are pushing them to be more “prolific” when they write.
- Increase in Stamina
- Increase in Output

Changes to Output

- Children write about topics they personally develop and are invested in, but within the genre they are learning about.
- The length and complexity grow throughout a unit.

Assessment for Learning

Using Data as a Driver

Data Meetings

Every Grade Level, Every Student

Intervention Early

Finding student gaps early, and acting early

Tools at Our Disposal

Seeing the data visually helps us provide teachers with action steps

Growing Together

MLHS Students working with 5th Grade Girls

The Program

Finding solutions for when problems begin

A 5th Grade Perspective

An 11th Grade Perspective

Thank you for your support!

