

Mr. Dean Berrier

Mr. Berrier is one of seven children born to Bruce and Evelyn Berrier in Seneca County. He attended Hopewell-Loudon School. After serving in the US Army in Germany from 1953 to 1955, he married his wife Gaye. Dean has four children, Steve, Kelly, Theresa and Mike who all attended Hopewell-Loudon.

Dean started his own business, Dean Berrier Excavating, and over the last 45 years Dean Berrier Excavating has donated much time and equipment on various projects at Hopewell-Loudon including the football stadium, softball field, and the baseball fields. Dean has dug water lines, hauled stone and dirt, graded the parking lots as well as many other things to help Hopewell-Loudon School. Mr. Berrier has always been available whenever the school needs a helping hand.

Along with his four children, Mr. Berrier also has nine grandchildren, many who have attended or are attending Hopewell-Loudon.
