

Dorothy Roush

Mrs. Roush was a graduate of Bowling Green State University. She began teaching at Hopewell-Loudon in 1999 and retired in 2008. While at Hopewell-Loudon, Dorothy primarily taught 9th and 12th grade English, but also had classes in 8th and 11th grade English, 7th and 8th grade writing, 8th grade reading, speech and novels. During Mrs. Roush's tenure at Hopewell-Loudon, she was known to all of her students as a very dedicated teacher, who put the needs of the students above her own. Mrs. Roush did whatever it took to help her students learn. In 2007, Dorothy received a Distinguished Youth Asset Builder Award sponsored by the Seneca County Family and Children First Council and the Fostoria and Tiffin Optimist Clubs.
