

Duane Warns

Mr. Warns history at Hopewell-Loudon started when he was 3 years old, as a mascot for the basketball team. As a student, he participated in baseball, track and basketball at Hopewell-Loudon. Overall he earned 11 varsity letters, making him the first student in school history to earn 11 letters. While in high school, Warns received all-league and all-district honors, while racking up 1,220 career points.

After graduation from high school in 1957, and then from Heidelberg College, Mr. Warns returned to Hopewell-Loudon to serve as a teacher and coach from 1961 – 1963.

Duane's connection to Hopewell-Loudon didn't end there. He retired in 2007 after serving for 17 years as an Assistant Commissioner with the Ohio High School Athletic Association. He was present to honor quite a few Hopewell-Loudon athletic teams who have advanced to State tournament level in recent history.
