

Floyd Porter

As the second superintendent to serve the Hopewell-Loudon Local School District, Mr. Porter was dedicated to education. Under his tenure, the farmland across the road from the school was purchased for future use. Currently, several athletic fields and a parking lot occupy the area.

Mr. Porter left Hopewell-Loudon in 1967 to serve as the Seneca County Superintendent.