

Gloria Warrington

Early in her teaching career, Gloria Warrington took a position at Hopewell-Loudon Elementary School. During her 34-year career at Hopewell-Loudon, she taught fifth grade, sixth grade, then spent 12 years teaching kindergarten. The last 16 years of her career, she taught first grade. Also during her tenure, she served on the committee to build the Chieftain gym in the old school, and was the president and treasurer of the Hopewell-Loudon Education Association.

Along with teaching, Mrs. Warrington also coached 7th grade volleyball for 3 years, was a cheerleading advisor for 7 years, and served as senior class advisor for 3 years.

Gloria retired from Hopewell-Loudon in 2004, but continues to support the school and its students. She volunteered her time to make commemorative bricks which were sold to support the Hopewell-Loudon Heritage Committee during the new school construction. She has also been an elementary classroom volunteer for 12 years, as well as a substitute teacher.

Mrs. Warrington's devotion to the district is an inspiration to all of her fellow Chieftains.
