

DUAL CREDIT ART APPRECIATION

A course designed to provide an understanding and appreciation of the visual arts.

Three hours lectures. Three hours credit.

DC Art Appreciation course introduces students to the fundamentals of visual art, history, and culture, teaching them to describe, analyze, interpret, and evaluate artworks using formal elements (like line, color) and design principles, while exploring diverse media (painting, sculpture, film) and historical/cultural contexts through lectures, readings, discussions, writing, and sometimes hands-on projects, aiming to build critical thinking and aesthetic sensitivity.
