EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS OF STUDENTS

The federally-funded McKinney-Vento Act ensures educational rights for students experiencing homelessness. Students have the right to:

- Enroll and attend classes immediately without proof of residency, immunization records or other documents
- Attend the neighborhood school or the school of origin (the school student attended when permanently housed or last enrolled)
- Attend their school of origin until the end of the school year, even if they become housed or move out of the district, if feasible
- Attend school while a dispute resolution is pending
- Received transportation to/from their school of origin
- Access school services including special education, Title 1, TAG and ELL services
- Free meals
- Attend district preschool programs

PROGRAM SERVICES

- Ensure that students are identified, enrolled and attending school
- Enrollment assistance with alternative educational placements
- Educational advocacy and access to special programs
- Access to academic support (tutoring, credit recovery)
- Assist in obtaining educational records
- Transportation via school bus or public transportation
- Resolve enrollment and transportation disputes
- Provide school supplies
- Disseminate public notice of the education rights of students that qualify for the McKinney-Vento Act
- Refer students and families to community resources and programs
- Assistance with access to sports equipment
