

Richie Dimler

Class of 1975

Richie Dimler had an exceptional football career at Bayonne High School. After lettering for four years, Dimler was recruited by the University of Southern California. Richie played four years for the Trojans and was Co-Captain of the 1978 National Champion Trojans. Rich was drafted by the Cleveland Browns and entered the National Football League. During his time in the NFL, he also played for the legendary Green Bay Packers.