

Danan Hughes

Class of 1988

Robert Danan Hughes had an exceptional sports career at Bayonne High School where he played basketball, baseball and football. During his time at BHS, Danan was named All-County in football and baseball. Danan continued his football and baseball career at the University of Iowa before being drafted by both the Milwaukee Brewers and the Kansas City Chiefs. After much thought, Danan chose to play football and expect this entire career with the Chiefs until his retirement in 1998.
