

Dwayne Williams

Class of 1979

Having been a part of every state championship team in the school's history as either a player or a coach, Dwayne Williams is a legendary figure in Bayonne High School football. A standout running back, Williams was a Parade High School All-American and earned First-team All-State honors. Heavily recruited across the country, Dwayne chose to play for the University of Iowa under legendary coach Hayden Fry.