

Coach Rich Treonze

Class of 1969

Rich Treonze is a celebrated figure in Bayonne High School athletics, primarily recognized for his long-standing commitment to track and field. A highly respected coach, Treonze was inducted into the Hudson County Track Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2002 for his extensive contributions to the sport. Beyond his coaching duties, he served as a long-time officer of the HCTCA, playing a pivotal role in organizing county-level competitions and supporting local student-athletes. His legacy at Bayonne High is defined by his dedication to fostering athletic excellence and maintaining the school's "Garnett & White" pride. During his tenure, he coached such notables as Kevin and Glenn DiGiorgio brothers as well as NFL star, Kenny Britt.
