

CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS
February 6, 2026

May I have your attention for the announcements please...

During all lunch periods today, Eucharistic Adoration will be available in the chapel. All are invited to spend a few moments praying and experiencing God's presence in the Blessed Sacrament.

Black History Month is a time to honor the achievements and contributions of Black Americans throughout history. Fun Fact: Carter G. Woodson, known as the Father of Black History, started Black History Week in 1926—which later became Black History Month!

Why did the bear bring a ladder to Challenge Day? Because it heard the steaks were high. Make sure to come and try out for challenge day next Tuesday and Thursday even if you didn't come to tryouts yesterday.

Seniors- reminder to check the email you received Friday from Mr. Saia and complete the sign-up form for the speaker sessions you would like to attend for Career Day on March 16.

The Super Bowl ends the NFL season. That means it is time for some REAL football! Intramurals flag football is back! Forms are on Moodle. See Mrs. Reinecke in the counseling office with questions. Registration closes Wednesday February 25th.

Bear Nation, tonight, the Basketball Bears begin district play against Liberty inside The Cave on Claycut! Make sure you arrive early and enjoy a tailgate put on by our friends at Walk-Ons. There will be food, games, and gift cards beginning at 5 p.m. Your JV Bears basketball team will tip off at 5:30 with the varsity game to follow. Let's pack The Cave! Go Bears!

Attention Bear fans!

Come out and support your Soccer Bears as they take on the Central Wildcats in playoff action. The match starts at 6:00 PM, right here at CHS at the Couhig Family Athletic Complex. Let's show up strong—Go Bears!

Be sure to follow CHS Athletics on social media for updates on our wrestling team. Today and tomorrow, your Wrestling Bears will compete in the Division I state championship bracket as they battle for a state title. Let's cheer them on—Go Bears!

Thank you for your attention; that is all.
