2535 LIBRARY MATERIAL

The Board of Education believes the freedom to read is a human right, constitutionally protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, and individuals have the right to free inquiry and the right to form their own opinions. The freedom to read does not require an individual to agree with topics or themes within a material, but instead allows a reader to explore and engage with differing perspectives to form and inform their own views pursuant to the “Freedom to Read Act” N.J.S.A. 18A:34A-1 through N.J.S.A. 18A:34A-7.

9130 PUBLIC COMPLAINTS

The Board of Education shall establish procedures for the hearing and settlement of complaints concerning district staff members, the educational program, instructional or resource materials, or the operations of the district. Complaints regarding library material as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:34A-3 shall be addressed in accordance with Policy and Regulation 2535. The procedures for the hearing and settlement of complaints shall provide a means for resolving complaints fairly and impartially and permit appropriate resolution.

The grievance procedure outlined in Regulation 9130 shall not be utilized by a district staff member or Board member unless the district staff member or Board member is doing so in their capacity as a parent of a student currently enrolled in the district.

When a Board member is confronted with a complaint concerning district staff members, the educational program, instructional or resource materials, or the operations of the district, the Board member will withhold comment and refer the complaint to the Superintendent in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1.j., who shall review the complaint in accordance with Regulation 9130.

Any misunderstandings or disputes between the public and district staff members should, whenever possible, be settled by direct, informal discussions among the interested parties. It is only when such informal meetings fail to resolve differences that more formal procedures shall be employed.

Procedures for the resolution of complaints regarding district staff members, the educational program, instructional and resource materials, and the operations of the district shall be governed by Regulation 9130.
