

AIHS 15th Weekly Announcements

February 8, 2026

WELCOME TO THE 15th NEWSLETTER

It's a Girl! Dakota Marie Rose Williams was born on February 5, 2026 to Bret Williams, our AIHS Paraprofessional and his wife Kiley. Such a beautiful little girl and we are so happy to welcome her to the AIHS Baby Squad.

AIHS SCHOOL COUNCIL MEETING

On Tuesday, February 3, 2026, the monthly AIHS School Council meeting was held. The council is made up of students, staff and community members. Evan highlighted topics around student attendance, how being at AMS adversely affected students and how glad they are to have returned to "their building." Topics also discussed were about next year's budget, the field trip to Salem State on 2/13 (please make sure your child has handed in his/her permission slip.) Finally the proposed Trade/College Fair we are planning to hold on April 17th and we will invite other schools. Lots of good things are happening!

Members; Staff: Ariana Natoli, Jon Kezer, Evan Melanson, Carol Bartlett. Community: Hillary Fraize, Deb Smith. Student: Savannah Way

While your kiddos had a half-day on Friday, AIHS teachers were still in school hosting AHS Paraprofessionals to hear a representative, Emmalie, speak about Youth Mental Health and Suicide Prevention based on QPR: Question, Persuade, Refer She is from Family Services of Merrimack Valley

When you read this, you may be about to sit down to enjoy the SuperBowl (Go Patriots!!!) But AIHS had its own Pre-Game Celebration, complete with football squares and all the foods associated with THE BIG GAME!!!

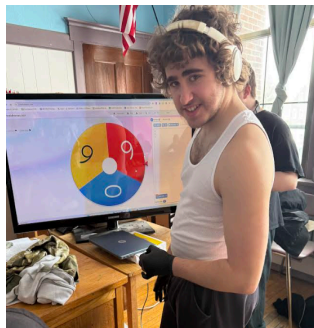

Jon Kezer made pulled pork, calzones and queso.

Evan made queso, Chris Sacoco made buffalo chicken dip..we had other dips and chips and lots of cookies and cupcakes...and donuts...can't forget those. So much food. The staff is so generous in making sure our students are well fed at our celebrations. And there weren't many leftovers at the end of the day!

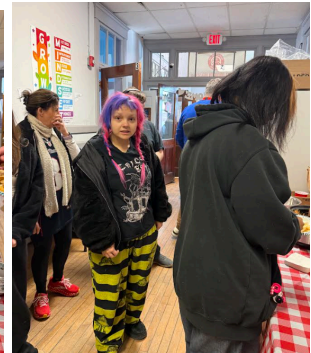

To make the game "more interesting,"

Jon came up with a way to tie in the idea of probability with the Superbowl. Students drew numbers, each child got a square Patriots vs. Seahawis and the winner might get a slice of pizza or dessert from Vermette's--bragging rites at least--but they had fun and we're sure that kids who didn't really have an interest in the game will be more engaged.
