- Happy Black History Month Las Plumas! History Fact: Mae Jemison became the first Black woman in space in 1992. Quote: "Never limit yourself because of others' limited imagination." — Mae Jemison Explanation: This quote reminds us not to let other people's doubts or expectations stop us from chasing big dreams. You can do anything you put your minds to, Happy Black History Month!
- If you're interested in umpiring Little League Baseball or Softball, there are two upcoming clinics. The rules clinic will be held on Friday, February 20th, in Durham, and the field clinic will be held on Saturday, February 21st, at Chico Westside Little League. Please see Mr. Loudermilk if you'd like more information.
- The Black Student Union invites you to Let's Get Real Talk! This month we'll discuss Cultural Appropriation vs. Cultural Appreciation and why it matters, an open and respectful discussion on what it means to appreciate culture the right way. We'll also explore why appropriation can be harmful and how we can grow together as a school community. Join us Today February 9th, during lunch in room 622.
