3) Superintendent and Director Reports

Superintendent Josh Hurt

- One of our bus drivers, Calvin Ferguson, passed away today. Please keep his family, friends, and coworkers in your thoughts and prayers. We also have another bus driver who is battling cancer at this time.
- Thanked the school board members and presented tokens of appreciation as part of School Board Recognition Month.
- Lawmakers have returned to Frankfort for a 60-day budget session. They are also expected to make amendments to SB 181 regarding the new traceable communications for school districts law.

Joseph Eaton – MCHS

- Alivia Acree, Aubrey Glass, Leah Kerr, Harper Hurt, Abby Shirley, and Corrinne Keller participated in the Future of Schools Institute at GRREC. They had some great ideas.
- Leah Kerr and Ashton Stephens were selected to represent MCHS at the HOBY Youth Leadership Conference at Berea College.
- Jim Claypool Writing Contest winners at MCHS were:
 - 1st Elizabeth Compton (advanced to state)
 - 2nd Corinne Keller
 - 3rd Winter Morgan
- MCHS Junior Mason Jessee made it to the top 12 in the state for the STLP engineer positions. He plans to try again next year.
- Hornet Hoodie Day was another success at MCHS. Thanks to Mrs. Kelly Shaw and all of the staff who made it possible, and a special thanks to our community businesses for their support year after year.
- MCHS culinary students catered the retired teachers' lunch and did a fantastic job.
- MCHS had a Senior Class Christmas Lunch before break. It was nice to get those seniors together for a fun time before the craziness of the second semester.
- The boys basketball team was the division champs in the Christmas tournament at Pensacola.
- The girls basketball team went 5-0 in their Christmas tournament in Louisville.
- Both the Hornets and Lady Hornets competed for the 4th Region All "A" Classic Championship last Friday Night. Both finished as runners-up.
- Homecoming was last night:
 - Queen-Aubrey Glass
 - King-Kruz Tucker
 - 1st Runner Up-Heather George
 - 2nd Runner Up-Maddie Harbison
 - 3rd Runner Up-Emma Petranek
- Nick Osborn, a Junior at MCHS, recently enlisted with the KY National Guard.
- Bowling is having a great season, and the team has only lost a few matches. Their tournament starts at the end of this month.

Mr. Hurt – We are proud to be the first local district to launch "Operation Hornet Hoodies" back in 2022. We are also grateful that the idea has spread to neighboring districts, so that thousands of students can now benefit from free sweatshirts and promote their school pride.

Kelly Bell – The Board appreciates the high school's efforts to build relationships and foster family bonding among students through group activities such as the Family Thanksgiving Meal and the Senior Christmas Meal.

Micah Fields – LifeWise

- There are 129 students in grades 2nd – 5th grades enrolled in LifeWise. We are very excited for this program and the success that we are seeing in the first year.
- We hope to keep enrolling students and expanding grade levels.
- Thankful for the partnership with the school district. The support is incredible.

Jamie Moss – Exceptional Ed

- There will be a special ed parent survey posted soon on our website. Please help spread the word. It is an anonymous survey.

Autumn Shirley – Gifted and Talented

- It's a busy month for gifted education. January is the deadline for Rogers Explorers, Rogers Scholars, and Governors Scholar's applications. We are meeting with students to finalize those applications.
- The middle school will start their work in the Future of Schools Institute at GRREC this week, which is similar to the high school.

Stacey Slinker – HR

- W2s and 1099s are being sent out.
- We are preparing for allocations and letters of intent for next year.

Jamie Howard – MCES

- I-Ready testing is underway at MCES.
- Jim Claypool Writing Contest winners at MCHS were:
 - 1st Mia Thompson
 - 2nd Lexi Thompson
 - 3rd Payton Morgan
- Thank you to Mr. Joseph Eaton (Grinch) and Mr. Britt Young (Magic School Bus) for helping MCES with special Christmas celebrations at MCES.
- MCES hosted a surprise perfect attendance award before Christmas break.
- Thanks to Freed Reece and ESB for providing Christmas gifts to our preschool students.
- MCES Beta visual art projects will be on display starting tomorrow.

Mr. Hurt – Mrs. Jamie Howard has done an exceptional job as interim principal and MCES. I met with the MCES SBDM council today. We plan on posting the elementary school principal job opening on Feb. 1.

Matt Shirley – Facilities

- We are planning to surplus a few items that will be on the agenda next month.

Mr. Hurt – Thanks to everyone who helped make the finals of the 4th Region All "A" Classic a success. We had less than 24 hours to prepare, but it all went very well. It was the same night as a fundraising concert for our band program. There were lots of people on the Hill, and we are very proud of our school and community for their support.

LeAnne Bell – MCMS

- MCMS has wrapped up the boys basketball season.
- Brayden Bow, 8th grade, was named to the Third District Honors Band.
- Many MCMS students were recognized at the 4-H Regional Banquet held at the Corvette Museum and Convention Center.
- I-Ready testing began today with reading. Math is tomorrow.
- Eight MCMS students are participating in the Future Schools Institute at GRREC with Mrs. Autumn Shirley.
- Several MCMS students are working on their Rogers Explorers application.
- Students competed in the District Academic Team competition today. They will continue the competition on Saturday.
- MCMS celebrated Rubber Ducky Day today.
- MCMS volleyball matches start this week.
- Thanks to Central Office for its support during the last few weeks.

Allen Trotter – DPP

- There are three phases of the CDIP (Comprehensive District Improvement Plan) that the Board will consider for approval tonight.
- The Board is being asked to consider the approval of the KCSS (Kentucky Center for Safe Schools) Audit. The following were pulled from the draft audit:
 - All students who were interviewed at all three schools said that they have at least one trusted adult they could count on at school.
 - SROs, nurses, mental health providers, and school counselors were also commended.
 - Perception of safety in our schools is very high.
 - School and home communications are strong.
 - Drills are being conducted timely and properly.
 - ID badges are being worn.
 - Threat assessment teams may need more training.
 - Need to work on our Emergency Operations Plan and Reunification Process.
- All schools are above 90% attendance for the school year. We are 92% for the district.

Rachel Dial – Instruction

- As part of the CSIP (Comprehensive School Improvement Plan) at the elementary school, the Board is being asked to approve item 5B, which includes special considerations for Additional Targeted Support and Improvement (ATSI) at MCES. The school tested in the bottom 5% statewide for students with disabilities during the most recent KSA exam. Activities included in the plan are additional teacher collaborations, revised schedules, goal setting, progress monitoring, improved teacher/student/parent communication, targeted instruction for specific learning needs, and summer PD. The 4th-grade teachers have already started their plans.

Cheyenne Garmon – CFO

- Regarding the FY 2025 Financial Audit on agenda item 5C:
 - There were no internal control issues.
 - There were no issues in ESSER or Title I funds.
 - The district is still a high-risk auditee. This is the last year for that categorization. It should return to low-risk next year.
 - It was a clean, unmodified audit. There were a few cleanup comments.
 - The district started the year with $4.7 million in the general fund and ended with $4.4 million.
- Regarding the FY 2027 Draft Budget on agenda item 5D:
 - It is a rollover of the current year.
 - The tentative budget should be ready in May and the working budget in Sept.
- Regarding the new action item 5G, if approved, any bonds issued between 2026 and 2028, $4,504 will be paid by the School Facilities Construction Commission on our behalf.

Torrie Osbon – Grants/PR

- Read to Achieve Grant awards should be announced in February.
- KDE is offering a Math Coaching Grant for middle schools.
