DIRECTORS NOTE

Matilda
The Musical

Good evening and welcome to the 2026, Clarence Middle School musical, Roald Dahl's Matilda Jr. Dahl's work encompasses many beloved children's works from James and the Giant Peach to Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, or Willy Wonka, as it's more commonly known. Matilda, a story about courage, imagination, and discovering the power of your own voice, has been both a successful movie and a very popular Broadway production.

At the heart of this show is a simple but important idea: kids matter. Your thoughts matter. Your kindness matters. And your bravery—especially when things feel unfair—can change the world around you. Matilda teaches us that you don't have to be the biggest, loudest, or strongest person in the room to make a difference. Sometimes, all it takes is standing up for yourself and for others, even when it feels scary.

This cast has worked incredibly hard to bring this story to life. We had a short calendar to begin with, and Mother Nature has certainly added to the challenges of producing a show! Through it all, you've worked hard to learn lines, music, choreography, and teamwork—but more than that, you've learned how to trust each other. Theatre is not about one person shining alone; it's about many people lifting one another up. Every role on this stage matters, and every performer plays a part in telling this story.
As you perform tonight, remember to have fun and be bold. Make strong choices. Share Matilda's story with the audience. And most of all, enjoy the moment—you've earned it. The magic of theatre happens when you share your creativity and heart with an audience, and this cast has a lot of both.

To the cast and crews-You are all truly talented people, and you have made the rehearsals just fly by. You have given freely of your time and talents, and the results speak for themselves. We hope you will always remember fondly your time on our stage. We are so proud of you. Now go out there and show the world what happens when kids decide to be a little bit revolting (in the very best way).

Break a leg! 🎭

SYNOPSIS

Matilda The Musical JR. opens with enthusiastic school children (and their parents) singing their own praises... except MATILDA. According to her parents, she is nothing but a nuisance (Miracle). At Matilda's home, her father, MR. WORMWOOD, reveals his scheme to sell old cars as brand new luxury cars to a Russian businessman. Matilda does not believe this is fair and goes to her room, pausing on the way to mix her father's hair tonic with her mother's hair dye (Naughty). The next morning, Mr. Wormwood's hair is green.

Matilda drops by the library to visit MRS. PHELPS, the librarian. She tells Mrs. Phelps part one of the tale of the ACROBAT and the ESCAPOLOGIST, two circus performers deeply in love. The tale cuts off just as the couple is primed to perform their most dangerous trick. Matilda starts her first day of school the next morning (School Song). Fortunately, Matilda's teacher is MISS HONEY, a woman who cares deeply for her students. Miss Honey immediately recognizes Matilda's advanced intelligence, prompting her to visit the school's vicious headmistress, MISS TRUNCHBULL. The teacher hopes to promote Matilda to a more challenging class, but Trunchbull refuses (The Hammer).

Mr. Wormwood returns home, furious that the Russians did not fall for his scheme. Matilda lines the rim of her father's hat with superglue (Naughty - Superglue - Part 2).

At school the next day, Matilda's classmate NIGEL is in a panic, saying he has been blamed for a trick on Trunchbull. If she finds him, she will put him in the infamous chokey, a cupboard lined with nails, spikes, and broken glass (Chokey Chant). Matilda tells the students to throw their coats onto Nigel. When Trunchbull storms onstage, Matilda tells her Nigel has been asleep under the coats for the last hour due to his sleeping disorder. Trunchbull reluctantly accepts this explanation.

At the Wormwood home, Miss Honey tries to explain to MRS. WORMWOOD how special her daughter is, but she doesn't listen, returning to her dancing lesson with RUDOLPHO. Miss Honey feels helpless (This Little Girl). At the library, Matilda continues the circus story for Mrs. Phelps. The Escapologist announces that their act is cancelled because his wife, the Acrobat, is pregnant. However, the Acrobat's sister refuses to cancel the act.

At school the following day, Trunchbull bursts into the classroom, accusing Matilda of eating a piece of her cake - but the culprit turns out to be BRUCE. Trunchbull punishes the boy by forcing him to eat the rest of the cake in one sitting, and the kids cheer as he finishes the cake (Bruce - Part 1). Despite his victory, Trunchbull takes Bruce to the chokey.

Continued

Matilda is upset by the unfairness of this. She goes to the library, launching into the next part of her dramatic circus tale. The Acrobat is killed during the performance - but not before giving birth to a baby girl. The children in Matilda's school sing about what life will be like when they grow up. Miss Honey and Matilda join in (When I Grow Up).

At the Wormwood home, Mr. Wormwood announces that by tweaking the speedometers in his cars, he has a completed a successful business deal with the Russians. Matilda is disgusted. In her room, Matilda finishes the story: the Escapologist leaves to confront his treacherous sister-in-law, but never returns.

The next day at school, Trunchbull believes the students are up to something (The Smell of Rebellion). Her fears are confirmed when LAVENDER puts a newt into Trunchbull's water jug, causing pandemonium. Everything slows down as Matilda explains to the audience that she can sometimes find calmness in herself that allows her to do amazing things (Quiet). She uses her ability to throw the glass with the newt at Trunchbull, who screams and runs. Matilda reveals her ability to Miss Honey, who admits that she is poor and lives in a shed. Her father died when she was little, and her cruel aunt became the owner of her childhood home.

Miss Honey suspects her aunt killed her father, and reluctantly reveals that her aunt is none other than Trunchbull. The next day, Trunchbull challenges Miss Honey's class to a spelling test. The students spell every word right. When Trunchbull claims a student has misspelled a word and tries to drag her to the chokey, the whole class begins spelling incorrectly in solidarity. Writing appears on the chalkboard, apparently written by Trunchbull's dead brother-in-law (but actually magically written by Matilda). Trunchbull leaves and the children sing in joy (Revolting Children).

Miss Honey inherits her parent's house and takes over the role of headmistress. Just before Matilda is whisked off to Spain by her family who are on the run from the Russian mob, Miss Honey has a proposition: let Matilda stay with her. The Wormwoods agree, and Matilda and Miss Honey are both overjoyed (Bows).

You've taught us that even if you're little you can do a lot. Your brothers may find you a bit revolting, and you sometimes smell of rebellion, but know that you will always be our miracle. We love watching you grow up! Congrats on your final middle school musical, Miss Choreographer!

STUDENT CHOREOGRAPHER

Bella Cieslewicz (Student Choreographer) was born to preform. She has been dancing at David DeMarie Dance studio since she was 4 years old. She loves learning and competing in all types of dance, however, her true personality shines with tap. She has won numerous awards for her fancy footwork and captivating facial expressions. She has enjoyed appearing in the CMS productions of SpongeBob the Musical and The Little Mermaid. Her favorite has been choreographing for Matilda as her creative juices have been allowed to flow. Sit back, relax and enjoy the show!

Ben, we are beyond proud of you and all you have accomplished on stage. Watching your journey through musical theater has been such a joy—from Oliver Warbucks in Annie, to Baby Simba in The Lion King, an Electric Skate in SpongeBob, Grimsby in The Little Mermaid, and Grandpa Joe in Wonka. Getting to see you take on Trunchbull in Matilda was especially exciting, and you absolutely owned the role with your larger-than-life presence, confidence, and perfect comedic timing. Each performance shows how much you've grown and how much you love being on stage. Congratulations on an outstanding performance—we are so proud of you and can't wait to see what role you take on next!

With love,
Mom, Dad, Dom and Gram

8TH GRADE BIOS

Ben Annunziato - Trunchbull - How about a little "BEN-binatum est Magitum" at Crunchem Hall this year? If there was anyone who could hold the keys to the Chokey, it's Ben. Ben is well known for his for his tremendous talent and occasional mischief. You've seen him as Warbucks in Annie, Young Simba in the Lion King, Electric Skate in SpongeBob the Musical, Grimsby in The Little Mermaid, and Grandpa Joe in Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory. He loves traveling and hanging with his homies, and he's an accomplished cellist and viola-ist. Only time will tell what the future holds for Ben, but you can bet your chocolate cake it's going to be fabulous! You got the confidence, Ben.

Hailey Barone - in Miss Honey's class - This little honey is thriving in her musical theater experiences. She loved The Little Mermaid, and she is back for more this year, so put your hands together for Hailey the comet. We can't help but be star-struck by this girl on fire. When she's not all full of theater energy, she's known to kick it as a cheerleader and a writer. Her love? - her friends! Her dream? - to build an acting career that is so gyatt!

Annaliese Brancato - Student Choreographer - It's one thing to take the stage and hang in the spotlight. It's something different entirely to be part of the directorial staff. Annaliese, we are so proud of your innovative ideas. She's got musical theater thoughts that are actual fire. After Annie, The Lion King, The Little Mermaid, and Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory, Annaliese absolutely ate the choreographic role (or maybe roll?) and left no crumbs. She's also known for her (six) seven years of competitive dance, eleven years of regular dance, and two years of cross country. She loves doing musicals and has made some of her best friends by doing shows. Perf, Annaliese. Just perf!

Savannah Campbell - Big Kid ensemble - In addition to her fabulous experiences in CMS's productions of The Little Mermaid and The Lion King, Savannah has been known to participate in ATA shows and dance at Karyn Kelley. This girl has a promising theatrical future. When she grows up, she plans to be on stage, using her voice, imagination, and talents all for good - and she adds just the right amount of mischief to our Matilda.

Kenzie, we are so proud of you! We love you so much. We cant wait to see the show!
Love, Mom, Dad, and Bryson ❤️

8TH GRADE BIOS

Safaa Chowdry - Tech Crew - Given the low-key details Safaa has provided, we can deduce she is a crew member of some sort, hitting the soundboard last year. Let's hear it for Safaa! She's wicked with a racket - badminton and tennis - and she's smooth with a bow on her cello. She goes for it - and we like that. The girl has flavor.

Bella Cieslewicz - Big Kid Chorus/stand out dancer/student choreographer - This talented lady is dreaming big! She's been a lead dancer and tumbler in SpongeBob the Musical and The Little Mermaid, and she's done H&MC for The Lion King. She loves dancing, sewing, hair and makeup, cooking, and baking. Her big dream is to be a Disney cast member who dances on cruise ships and maybe even open her own hair, nail, and make up salon. Big dreams loading, Bella!

Evelyn Cooper - Art Crew - Girl is cookin' on art crew with her high-key talent and low-key energy. Evelyn has done crew for two summer musicals - Seussical and SpongeBob the Musical - and is back for more before she bounces out of CMS for-evah! Her art abilities are trippin' and she gives winning effort. She's a good risk.

Grayson Ehre - Parent/Big Kid - Grayson is kind of an icon - not gonna lie. You've seen him in The Lion King and Frozen Jr. and this year, his ageless, timeless performance is unbeatable. When Grayson is not locked into stage and theater mode, he can be found fencing, singing, and gaming. Joust it, Grayson! Joust it hard.

Vinny Fetterly - Stage Crew - We bake in Vinny's aura farm. No cap, he is simppin'. He did The Lion King earlier in middle school - grade 6/7 - and loved it enough to come back to bust it up with Matilda. When he's not back stage, Vin is playing music, doing art, hanging with Jeter, and chillaxin' with his fam and friends. Ain't no way, ain't NO way, ain't no WAY this bro is in 8th grade already! Momma Fet, how you feelin' this? I know it's crushing you. But he's strong. He's good. He's got it to-gether! This is his main character moment. I'm crying.

Forever Our Shining Star!

NO MATTER HOW BIG THE STAGE, YOU'LL ALWAYS BE OUR STAR!

Emma, you have always loved performing, from confidently belting "know my know my ABCS" to fashion shows with crazy outfits to being a shining star in your preschool play. We have enjoyed every minute of seeing you shine on each new stage you grace! We are so proud of how much you've grown as a performer and as a person and can't wait to see your latest performance in Matilda!

Love, Mom, Dad,
Jacob and Maddy

8TH GRADE BIOS

Hailey Fitzgerald - Stage Crew - Brilliance! That's what this girl offers us. Pure brilliance! Ms. Hailey has big dreams loading. She has worked The Lion King and The Little Mermaid. And when she's not all into the stage crew biz, she's an accomplished equestrian and writer with loads of vision. This is exactly the timeline she has trained for. Vibes are ON!

Jeremy Garlapo - Stage Crew - Bro woke up and chose chaos. His spotlight experience on The Little Mermaid was so high-key. He's crazyyyyyyy with the lights and our shows would be dark without him. Jeremy digs the RC cars and he's hard-core mountain biker too. Bruh!

Simone Groff - Mom and Big Kid - This girl does actually insane work for us here at CMS. She's busted her heart and soul into every audition in all her years in middle school and has made it into the musicals in 7th and 8th grade. She'll kill it in the summer musical too. In her spare time, she plays violin - which she's been doing since first grade, when she was like 6/7 - and she's learning guitar. When she's bored, she likes to bake. GET BORED GUUUURL! We are hungry!

Charlotte Kraft - in Miss Honey's class - Charlotte's vibes are ON! I was today years old when I realized she's in 8th grade and not even a kid in Mrs. Rook's ELA class. What the Jonas is that all about? Kraft!! In other news - let's brag about her theatrical accomplishments. Charlotte was part of the grassland soli in The Lion King. She's a superstar on the softball field and a vigilante on the volleyball court. She's for reals SUPER excited to be a part of the year's production of Matilda.

Serina LaGier - Mom Soli - This lovely LaGier is powered by books, bravery, and big ideas. When she grows up, she wants to a world-famous, world-class musician, and she is tuning up before your very eyes right here on our stage. She's been in The Little Mermaid, The Lion King, Rock of Ages, SpongeBob the Musical, 101 Dalmatians (where she tried out a Scottish accent!), and Cinderella. She's also an accomplished equestrian, acoustic guitarist, singer, writer, and poet. Serina's tomorrow is starting tonight!!

Brynn Mack - Hortensia - Wait til you hear who this Horten-sia really is. (Was she in Seussical?) She's got brains and vibes and is proof that being smart is actually cool. Since she's the youngest in the hat trick of Macks, people presume she learned all she knows from her brothers, but the truth is, she's the one who's taught them everything they know. She rules the roost in BigMackville with her special sauce and a sesame seed bun. The Lion King and The Little Mermaid wouldn't have been the same without Brynn. You'll also find her to be a high-key singer, guitarist, and athlete. She's a low-key swimmer, only in the summertime when the weather is high. At this time, she has no other info to share, which is unusual since we all know how she manifests main-stage energy like nobody's bidness. Give her time, and she'll spill the tea sooner or later. #loveyaBrynnieBrynn

Lillian Marshall - Chorus/Art Crew - Give a shout out to the ultra-talented Lillian who decorates our stage in so many ways. You may recognize her from previous productions like Annie, The Lion King, SpongeBob, The Little Mermaid, and Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory. When Lillian is not singing her heart out, she is drawing, crafting, editing, voice-acting, and playing floor hockey. This lovely Lillian truly understands the art of expressing one's self - jazz hands included.

Dear Ethan,
Congratulations on the role of Eric!
You've been destined for the stage.

8TH GRADE BIOS

Olivia Martell - Big Kid Chorus - Miss Olivia has spent quite a bit of time backstage on H&MC and Art Crew in past years. She's also done Matilda for "a different place before." But she's OURS! ALL OURS! And that's a win for us. She is showing up for us with her good awareness. She is fo' shizzle a dancer, singer, animator, makeup artist, writer of music and stories, along with "some other unimportant things." Much mystery surrounds Ms. Martell. Shhh … don't activate the algorithms.

Brooklyn McCrea - Big Kid Chorus - This one lives for rehearsal snicky snacks and standing ovations, so grab your skittles and get on your feet when Brooklyn takes the stage. You've caught her act in The Lion King, but what you don't know is that she's low-key into baking and crafting. She also excels in dance, gymnastics, and soccer. Bring it, Brooklyn.

Alex McGowan - Stage Crew - This is the man who literally lights up our stage since he's been working the spotlight for the last two years. He's a real-life Mr. Brightside, if you will. Kid-power revolution is in your hands, Alex - and that is a choice. When Alex is not low-key beaming that spotlight, he is hangin' with his friends and bangin' on the drums. Be so for real, Alex. Be for real.

Gabriel McGreevy - Tech/Stage Crew - Gabe gets big props for his work on the show...actually, he gets big props, small props, any props that are needed to keep the show going. Gabe has been stage managing for six years. If you're trying to make the math work, that's because he started helping out before got to the halls of CMS. He's also taken a turn on the stage as a hyena in The Lion King - but that's no laughing matter, if you know what I mean. Props to our Renaissance man, Go Gabe!

Hattie Minor - Mom Soli/Big Kid Chorus - Stand back! Hattie is going to steal your heart in a MAJOR way. She swam to stage success in The Little Mermaid last year, and now she's back trying to ge to the head of the class at Crunchem Hall. She also excels in volleyball, track, skiing, dance, non-musical-type stage crews, Mixed Show Choir, Girls' Show Choir, band, and yearbook club. MAJOR potential, MAJOR talent, MAJOR sweet, MAJOR kind, and MAJOR smarts! Hattie is living proof that even kids can change the world.

Lily Mulhisen - Acrobat - You're going to flip for this kiddo as she tumbles her way into our hearts. Her talents are unparalleled - you know, like the parallel bars…get it? - Anyhoo, Lily has managed to balance her time between the CMS stage and all her dancing perfectly. She's performed in The Little Mermaid, Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory, and The Lion King. We really appreciate her flexibility!

Hannah Nawotniak - Mom Miracle Soli - When this Renassiance woman takes the stage, she will activate the algorithms high strung! You've caught her act in The Little Mermaid or in Girls' Show Choir, and it's hard not to be impressed with her stage presence in those groups. But the real Hannah shines when she is playing the ol' licorice stick, working her crochet needles, running cross country and track, cooking, baking, and doing math (Wait…what?!? MATH??) That's what happens when your name is a palindrome. Life is like a racecar or a tacocat! Yo! Banana Boy! Hannah is in the HOUSE!

Yasmeen Nouh - Mom Miracle Soli - This girlie girl knows the lyrics, knows the vibes. She learned all she knows from being a court attendant in Seussical, a wildebeest in The Lion King, a sardine in SpongeBob the Musical, a chef and jellyfish in The Little Mermaid, and an oompa loompa soloist in Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory. She is so kinda fire with softball, cross country, swimming, dance, reading, and writing. Yasmeen is ever-grateful for the opportunity to be part of CMS musicals - for realsies!

8TH GRADE BIOS

Elliana Olexenko - Mom Soli - This girl's resume is so extensive, she's elected not to list the titles of the over five -- like six/seven -- school musicals she's participated in. Elliana has also performed with ATA. We're tweaking over all her theatrical successes. When she's not working on Oscar-level performances, she likes to make art, dance, play games, play outside, and hang with her friends and family. No cap, this girl is awesome!

Layla Price - Stage Crew - Layla's experience is Priceless because we don't know what we'd do without her. She's done Stage and Art Crew for The Lion King and H&MC for The Little Mermaid. Under her expertise, our actors look fiiiiiiine! In her athletic era, Layla plays soccer, softball, basketball, flag football. In her music era, she plays the flute, and in her hungry era, she cooks and bakes. She stands in her truth, and we respect her confidence.

Alexis Scholze - Stage and Art Crews - This is Alexis's breakout sitch - never before has she been involved with our musicals. Where you been, guurl? Hear me out - these musical are insane work! Keep on keepin' on when you get to HS. They're gonna need your confident cooking. Alexis's sidequest is volleyball, and she is on fire on the VB court. WILSON! (IYKYK)

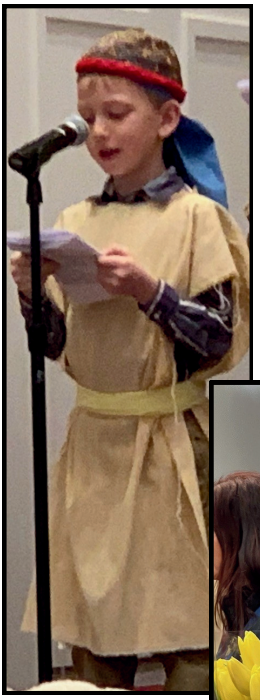

Kaydence Schutt - Mom Miracle Soli - Schutt the front door and give it up for Kaydence as she makes her debut on the CMS stage! It's hard to believe this talented young lady has no prior theatrical experience. She does, however, love painting, singing, and skateboarding. Welcome, Kaydence, as you join the ranks of the revolting in Matilda. We're so glad to have you.

Emma Sivic - Mom Miracle Soli - Emma is one of those kids we just can't help but love. She comes from a long line of favorites, and we're thrilled to have her gorgeous smile on our stage. You might recognize her from Seussical, The Lion King, Best Day Ever, The Little Mermaid, or Charlie and the Chocolate factory. Emma believes growing up is optional, but singing is NOT! It's a duty - a Sivic duty if you will. Em also loves skiing, reading, dancing, writing cool poetry and being published, and running. It's going to be hard to say goodbye to this one as she heads up to the HS. Thanks for the memories, Emma. You are high-quality effort.

Zach,

It brings us joy to see you back on the stage in the CMS Musical! We always love watching you perform— from the church pageant, to the Ledgeview talent show, to CMS. Escapologist is a great role for you, and we are so proud! Keep singing and being a kind, clever, and amazing person! Congratulations to the entire cast and crew of Matilda, Jr.!

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Nate, and Sam

8TH GRADE BIOS

Sophia Stegman - Big Kid Chorus - If given the chance, Sophia would 100% sing her feelings. Her revoltingly good stage presence has been showcased in The Lion King, The Little Mermaid, and Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory. There's more than just a talented actress here though. Sophia also loves music and writing. She's one who can read between the lines -- and sometimes rewrite them too. CMS's stage is beyond lucky to have this talented kiddo in our midst. Thanks for sharing your time with us, Sophia.

Areet Thind - Tech Crew - This is her first show, so we welcome Areet to our humble crew. Her talent is not accidental. She is a clean thinker, and she comes prepared, even though we don't know where she's going. She's got strategy that works, and we trust her process. When she's not low-key musical crewing, she is all piano-keys. She also likes the gym and cooking. Areet, you level it, guuurl!

Muskan Thind - Hair and Make-Up Crew - Muskan is proof that intelligence is a superpower. This girl - known not just for her stellar H&MC skills for the last two years - is a world-reknowned poet. She also loves photography and Indian Folk Dance. And just when we think we've seen all her talents, Muskan ushered for the entire time the show was running last year. This girl - talent and endurance. She would definitely survive Trunchbull's classroom and live to tell the tale.

Zach Thompson - Escapeologist - Get OUT! Zach helps any room he's in. He's in his theater era with The Lion King and now Matilda. He's in his athletic era with his competitive sailing and skiing, and he's in his music era every time he picks up his bassoon. Zach has flavor, and we'd be so bland without him. Clean thinking, Zach! Thanks, Bruh.

Reese Vanzile - Mom Miracle Soli - Reese and theatre go together like chocolate and peanut butter - in a (Reese's) cup even! You've seen this sparkling face in CMS's production of Annie Jr., The Lion King Jr., SpongeBob the Musical Jr., and The Little Mermaid. Reese proves that even when you're little, you can do a lot. And a LOT this girl does - FIVE different dance styles, including musical theater, jazz, tap, hiphop, and modern. She'd like to give a shout out to everyone who has made her MS performances unforgettable, including the Kohlers, Mrs. Brophy, and many more.

Madelyn, from the moment you stepped onto the stage at Clarence Middle School, you have shared your light, your courage, and your creativity with everyone around you. Starting as Missy Bird in Seussical, Jr., then dancing proudly as a zebra in The Lion King, skating with energy as part of the Electric Skates in SpongeBob, Jr., and shining as one of the princesses vying for Prince Eric in The Little Mermaid—you brought every role to life with joy and heart. Your unforgettable turn as Scarlett Beauregarde in Willy Wonka, Jr. showed your confidence and personality, and now, stepping into your most exciting role yet as Mrs. Wormwood in Matilda, Jr., you have truly amazed us. Watching you grow—not just as a performer, but as a confident, hardworking, and compassionate young person—has been one of our greatest joys. We are so incredibly proud of all you have accomplished during your years at CMS, and we cannot wait to see where your talents take you next. No matter the role, you will always be our star.

We love you so much.
Love, Dad, Mom, Braden, and Preston 💖✨

8TH GRADE BIOS

Ava Young - in Miss Honey's class - Ava is a real class act, and she certainly can act like she's part of the class. Powered by knowledge, confidence, and really good snacks, Miss Ava is proud to grace our stage this year. She was in the ensemble in Shrek at her old school, and she had a lead role in a Raise Your Voice, a Broadway Review. We're excited to have her here at CMS, but our stage isn't the last place you'll catch Ava's act. This girl loves dancing, drawing, and designing - a Triple D that usually spells DYN-O-MITE! (IYKYK)

Madelyn Zwolinksi - Mrs. Wormwood - This colorful Zinnia is no stranger to the stage. She's been on the jury in Seussical, earned her stripes as a zebra in The Lion King, giving an electictrifying performance in SpongeBob the Musical, danced her fins off in The Little Mermaid, and gave her best-regarde performance as Mrs. Beauregarde in Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory. Maddy's competitive dance career is first-rate, and she sings in Show Choir too. She's also been known to dabble in the world of baking. And being the youngest with two older brothers, this girl is a tough cookie.
