Class Details

Ensembles are made up of band students with the same level of experience and orchestra students with the same level of experience. A certified teacher for band or strings will teach each group. In the small ensemble, students will work on their skills by performing with students in the same experience level. Ensembles will be developed based upon registrations received. Some sections may be combined– you will be contacted about necessary changes!

Open to students in elementary and middle school that have at least one year of formal instruction, typically entering grades 5-8 next fall. This is not open to students who will start instruction in the fall.
