Four York Comprehensive Student-Athletes Celebrate Signing Day

York, SC – Four York Comprehensive High School students will be continuing their academic and athletic careers at the collegiate level.

Wednesday, February 11, 2026, students signed national letters of intent during a ceremony in the York Comprehensive High School Media Center surrounded by staff, coaches, teammates and family members.

Congratulations to these standout student athletes who participated in the signing day ceremony:

- Connor Sweatt (Baseball – Coker University)
- Ethan Ranucci (Baseball – Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute)
- Colby Falls (Baseball – Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute)
- Raegan Harvey (Volleyball – Brevard College)

“To our student athletes, you embody everything that it means to be a Cougar, said Travis Miller, Athletic Director, “to the parents, I’ve sat in your seat one time before, it’s a great time and place to be.”

Jenna Markey, York Comprehensive High School Principal, said “It has been an honor getting to know these incredible humans and athletes. I'm glad we get to see you continue to play for a little while longer with us this Spring. Never forget where you come from and you're always welcome home.”
