

OHS TIGERS

Daily Bulletin Thursday 2/12/26 Wk- White

Jackie Robinson is known for breaking the color barrier in Major League Baseball on April 15, 1947. He was the first African American to play in the modern era for the Brooklyn Dodgers, and for his significant contributions to the Civil Rights Movement, using his platform to advocate for equality and challenge racial segregation. He was an exceptional athlete, earned Rookie of the year, MVP, and World Series champion honors. His legacy was cemented by the universal retirement of his No. 42 jersey.
