A Legacy of Learning Since 1906

As the oldest operating school in the Madison Metropolitan School District, Randall Elementary has been a cornerstone of education and community since 1906. Generations of students have walked our historic halls, learning in an environment that values tradition, resilience and excellence.

Rooted in Mission and Joyful Learning

We are committed to nurturing a vibrant, child-centered community that celebrates diversity and academic growth. Our integrated, multicultural curriculum is thoughtfully designed to meet each student's individual needs, fostering a lifelong love of learning. Through a caring, respectful environment and high expectations, we empower students to reach their full potential. Strong partnerships between school, families and the wider community support the work.

A Welcoming Neighborhood School for All

Randall's inclusive spirit reaches far beyond the Regent Neighborhood. Our school proudly welcomes families from Bay Creek, Bay View, Bram Addition, Brittingham, Dudgeon-Monroe, Greenbush, South Campus and Vilas neighborhoods. No matter where they come from, every child and family is embraced as an important part of our learning community, where belonging, collaboration and mutual respect shape a strong foundation for success.
