SHES NEWS

Shopville finishes as runner-up at 54th District Governor's Cup

Last week, the Shopville academic team finished 2nd overall in the 54th District Governor's Cup at Eubank. The quick recall and future problem-solving (FPS) teams punched their tickets to regionals with runner-up finishes. The following students had top 5 finishes on their assessments: Hudson Boyle (5th in math), Asher Hamilton (4th in science), Isabella Young (5th in science), Liam Burton (1st in social studies and 4th in math), Adriana Cruse (2nd in language arts), Erika Ross (4th in language arts), Callum Sears (3rd in arts and humanities), Elizabeth Durham (5th in arts and humanities), and Kambree Newton (4th in composition). Congratulations to all of the Tiger students who competed for our school, and thank you to Ms. Tori Swint and Mrs. Holly Coffey for serving as the coaches for the team. The team will compete in the Regional Governor's Cup later this month at Highland Elementary in Lincoln County.

SHES celebrates Mr. Mounce

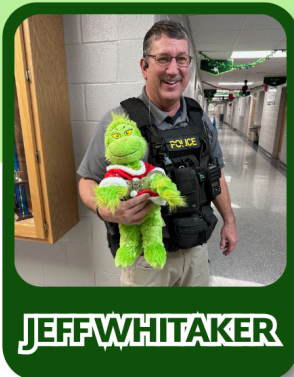

The week of February 9th-13th is FRYSC Appreciation Week. SHES is so lucky to have Mr. Kelley Mounce as its FRYSC Coordinator. He does so many things each day to help our students be successful. Thank you, Mr. Mounce!

THANK YOU, MR. MOUNCE
