RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS FOUNDATION™

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS WEEK

February 16-20, 2026

PEARLAND ISD COUNSELING & GUIDANCE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

February
16

Monday: Kindness to Self

Activity: Write one positive affirmation about yourself.

Goal: Always be kind to yourself

February 17

Tuesday: Kindness Cards

Activity: Have students create "Kindness Cards" where they can write a message or draw a picture that will brighten someone's day. These cards can be given to classmates, teachers, or even custodians or cafeteria staff.

Goal: Teach students how small gestures can make a big difference.

February
18

Wednesday: Help a Friend

Activity: Challenge students to help a friend with a task, whether it's carrying something heavy, organizing a desk, or assisting with a class activity.

Goal: Encourage cooperation and teamwork in the classroom.

February
19

Thursday: Compliment Day

Activity: Have students write anonymous compliments for their classmates on sticky notes or small pieces of paper. Later, randomly distribute the compliments so each student receives one.

Goal: Encourage positive words and boost self-esteem among students.

February 20

Friday: Kindness Chain

Activity: Each student writes or draws one kind act they've done or plan to do on a strip of paper. Link the strips together to create a Kindness Chain that grows throughout the week.

Goal: Encourage students to share and celebrate acts of kindness by creating a growing Kindness Chain.

WORLD

KINDNESS WEEK

In celebration of World Kindness Week, Silverlake Elementary and our amazing PTO are spreading kindness beyond our school walls!

Each grade level will create thank-you cards, pictures, or letters for a community helper. Our PTO will deliver the notes—along with a goody basket--to help spread kindness throughout our community.

PEARS, PreK, Kinder: Fire Department

First Grade: Police Department

Second Grade: PISD Transportation Dept.

Third Grade: Animal Shelter

Fourth Grade: Nursing Home
