

WELCOME TO THE PACK!!

ALL BULLDOG... ALL IN!!!

Good afternoon, Bulldog Family!

Our women's basketball teams finished the season in Eastland on Tuesday with a win and a big accomplishment by Kennley Rusinovich getting the new season record for rebounds. Our men's basketball team also won in Eastland on Tuesday, but fell short of a win in Early on Friday.

On Wednesday, our Bulldogs played in the first golf tournament of the season and survived it. It was a cold morning then got warm but the team persevered. This was some people's first tournament since last year and others first tournament ever and everyone got better. Liv Delgado finished in third overall. This tournament had 3A, 4A, 5A and 6A schools in it.

Thursday was also the first tennis tournament of the season. It was cold this morning, but our players played. Some had never played before, and Coach Bean was very proud of each and every one of them. The boys doubles team won third place and brought home two medals. The girls singles came in fourth place and the boys singles came in fourth place. This tournament had 4A, 5A and 6A schools. The team has had absolutely no practice whatsoever due to basketball just ending the previous night.

Our Softball team went 1-3 on the weekend. They picked up their first win Friday vs Lake Worth. Ashlynn Ford got her first career win as a pitcher, and Katelynn Black picked up the save.

MHS Beta competed at the State Convention and brought the heat! One day one, the team garnered 8 academic awards and the weekend was just getting started!

We have 20 Bulldogs advancing to Nationals this summer making history with the largest team headed to nationals ever! Congratulations to our Beta Bulldogs & our sponsor, Mrs. Lee, and Mrs. Shields and Coach Bass for their support in assisting our Bulldogs and Mrs. Lee at the competition!!

On Saturday, Calissa Marbut had the distinguished honor of performing as a member of the 2026 All-State Band — an achievement that, in itself, represents excellence, discipline, and extraordinary talent. But Calissa did more than earn a place among the best in Texas. She made history! For the third consecutive year, Calissa has been named to the All-State Band, becoming the first and only student in Millsap High School history to accomplish this remarkable feat. Three years. Three seasons of dedication. Three chapters of unwavering commitment to her craft.

Blessed to be a Bulldog!
