of Fine Arts

ABOUT US

The Florence Academy of Fine Arts, established in 2013 at Florence High School in Florence, AL, is situated in a community rich in art and music history. At FAFA, students thrive in an environment that fosters creativity, self-expression, and the development of artistic skills through learning and collaboration. The academy is supported by highly qualified faculty and offers a variety of courses in performing and visual arts, along with numerous opportunities for students to showcase their work and contribute to the community.
