

Check it out!

JCHS LIBRARY NEWS

February 2026

ART SHOW Once again the JCHS Art Department will showcase student artwork in the Library for the month of February. Please come in and check out some amazing student art pieces. Please look with your eyes, not your hands. The library will be open during the evening of February 12th until 7pm for the public to come in and view the art show.

MINDY MCGINNIS

Is coming to JCHS the morning of Thursday, March 4th. She will speak in the library during first, second, and third hours. Sign up using the form in your graduation google classroom. Come hear about her newest title, How Girls Are Made and other titles..

A ninth-generation farmer, Mindy attributes much of her character to growing up on an Ohio farm, learning the value of physical labor, and the harshness of the natural world early in life. Much of her writing reflects small-town living and aspects of rural poverty. A former school librarian, Mindy still lives and works in her hometown.

JANUARY LIBRARY STATS

Raffle Basket

Riley Waller

21

Most Requested Title

717

Books Checked Out

3D Print Requests

4

22

EPSILON BETA NEWS

Students are gearing up for JC Reads Week, March 9-13, by preparing for our partnership with Habitat For Humanity. They will be raising money for the organization and the Akbari family.

NEW BOOKS AT JCHS

TEACHER'S CORNER

The future of student driven class discussion.

Parlay is an AI-powered instructional platform that helps teachers facilitate meaningful, measurable, and inclusive class discussions. Join over a million teachers and students. Start using Parlay for free in your class today.

OUT AND ABOUT WITH ROGUE

Rogue had a wonderful time during our AMI/ Snow days! He would have played in the snow forever, but it was too cold for his little feet and he will not wear dog shoes!

