NEW NOMINEES

Stay tuned, the 2026/2027 Gateway nominees will be announced in the next two weeks. Stop by the library to see what makes the cut!

BLIND DATE WITH A BOOK

Are you ready to discover a new genre? Want a story you wouldn't have read otherwise, or something fun and flirty? Blind Date With a Book is an interesting way of discovering books you otherwise wouldn't have looked at. They could get you reading an entirely new genre, and may help get you actively reading more than ever. You'll love grabbing a title you know nothing about because it helps you branch out of your normal go-to genre. It's neat to dive into something new to see if you find a new favorite title or author. You can enter to win a edible prize for each blind date you go on. We'll see you in the library this month and hope you find love at first page on many blind dates.

NEW BOOKS AT JCHS

A wild misfit in the human world, Nettle is enthralled by the glamour of the faery realm, with its two moons and scarlet stars. She grows close to Conor, a human stolen centuries before, and she also falls under the spell of mysterious Ellion, a Shadow Faery.

Local Legends and Urban Myths, taught by a woman called the Professor. Most students believe the Professor's stories are just fiction, but Holland St. James has always been convinced that magic is real.

Alex Blackwood is a little bit headstrong, with a dash of chaos and a whole lot of flirt. She knows how to get the girl. Keeping her on the other hand...not so much. Molly Parker has everything in her life totally in control, except for her complete awkwardness with just about anyone besides her mom. She knows she's in love with the cool Cora Myers. She just... hasn't actually talked to her yet.
