

Check it out!

JCHS LIBRARY NEWS

October 2025

BOOKS FOR JACK O' LANTERN JAM

Epsilon Beta would love for you to share your gently used kids books to share with trick or treaters at Jack O' Lantern Jam. Please bring halloween, fall, or other children's books to the library. We will accept donations up until the event. Thanks for your support!

BANNED BOOKS WEEK

OCTOBER 5TH-11TH

We observe BBW each year to bring Awareness to censorship and how we can help promote the value of free and open access to information. Check out the display in the library to answer banned books trivia and win prizes for correct answers.

SEPTEMBER LIBRARY STATS

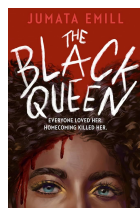

1 Raffle Basket

38

Most Requested Title

804

Books Checked Out

35

3D Print Requests

2

EPSILON BETA NEWS

Students are working on grab and go meal options, with recipe cards, for the JCHS food pantry. They are also accepting donations of gently used books to hand out during Jack O' Lantern Jam.

NEW BOOKS

Sally Skellington is the official, newly-minted Pumpkin Queen after a whirlwind courtship with her true love, Jack, who Sally adores with every inch of her fabric seams. See what's happening in Halloweentown in these two new titles.

Halloween is near, and Hughie Wolfe is volunteering at a new rural attraction: Harvest House. He's excited to take part in the fun, spooky show—until he learns that an actor playing the vengeful spirit of an "Indian maiden," will headline. As Moon rises on All Hallow's Eve, will they be able to protect themselves and their community?

A teen girl's attempt to make amends with her former friend group takes a sinister turn during a weekend getaway at an ancestral Irish estate in this atmospheric, literary horror from the author of Those We Drown.

TEACHER'S CORNER

Digital Citizenship Week is

October 20–24, 2025

AI is Changing Everything.

Each year during the third full week of October, Common Sense Media leads Digital Citizenship Week, an annual campaign to promote a healthy, balanced, and positive approach to media and tech use among young people. This year they've got brand-new resources to support students' digital well-being in the age of AI.

OUT AND ABOUT WITH ROGUE

Rogue, the library dog, celebrated JCHS Homecoming 2025 by being in the parade and helping chaperone the dance (with Mrs. Nahlik)

