Language categories: Students applying to all Dual Language programs are considered based on their category as a speaker and listener of the partner (immersion) language

Students applying to all Dual Language programs are considered based on their category as a speaker and listener of the partner (immersion) language:

Native Speaker: student who has been primarily communicating (both in speaking and listening) in the partner language with at least one parent/guardian since birth.

Heritage Speaker: a student who primarily speaks English but who has family members (i.e. parents or grandparents) who are/were native speakers of the partner language.

Speaker of another language (English): A student who is not a native or heritage speaker of the partner language.

Income eligibility: Students who meet federal guidelines for free/reduced price meals or attend a PPS or Head Start PK program receive lottery priority to many DLI programs. See the complete list here
